

As December's dates move toward to 31, the end of December and the calendar year 2022, attention is given to the examination of 22.

Twenty-two displays disorganization and or disintegration regarding Yahawah's statutory codes and prophecies. Moreover, numerical 20 obligates us to give testimony, and 2 denotes division.

Consider the application.

- Jeroboam ruled as king for twenty-two years. He died and was buried, and his son Nadab succeeded him as king. 1 Kings 14:20

Division.

The Northern and Southern Kingdoms of Israel with different Kings, both wicked.

- In the thirty-eighth year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for twenty-two years. 1 Kings 16:29

Biblical mathematicians point out, "twenty-two is the double of eleven." Or, $2 \times 11 = 22$. However, math logic gives more about the cardinal number. Eleven significance is in adding $1 + 10 = 11$. And subtracting one from twelve, eleven is the remainder.

The Judahite and number eleven

Many months ago, The Judahite invited a person to a ministerial coffee discussion in the Holy Spirit's conference room of the Second Heaven. The motivational purpose of the meeting is to enable people to start taking transitory steps to meet the Commonwealth of Israel's requirements. Because of time differences, The Judahite took the eleventh day at a set time, and the other person was given the twelfth day at a set time.

Understandably some people will take longer than others to make the mental transitions, thus no problem with different speeds.

The Judahite had purchased a family pack of 4 lb. Angus Chuck Roast ready for the slow cooker with all the vegetables. The Judahite served himself a plate in the late evening after the conference. After biting into the Roast, a tooth broke in half, with one part remaining attached to the jawbone. Yes, supernaturally broke off to illustrate the dual aspect of eleven's disintegration that underlines the divine from the physical. Given the certified knowledge of eleven, The Judahite understands the materialism of twenty-two.

Case in point:

The Senate passed a $1.7 trillion omnibus spending bill on December 22. The following is an account leading to the House passage on December 23, which now awaits the President's signature.

Aidan Quigley reports
Posted December 22, 2022 at 2:18pm

“The Senate overwhelmingly passed the mammoth fiscal 2023 spending package in a burst of activity on the floor Thursday after finally nailing down an amendments deal it took all day Wednesday and into the morning to hammer out.

The vote was 68-29 in support of the 4,155-page legislation. It includes the dozen annual spending bills for every federal agency, supplemental aid for the war in Ukraine and natural disaster victims, and a series of unrelated policies ranging from retirement savings incentives to driftnet fishing regulations.

The package includes $858 billion in defense spending, a nearly 10 percent increase over the previous fiscal year, and $787 billion in nondefense spending, close to an 8 percent increase. It also would provide roughly $85 billion in supplemental funding for Ukraine and disaster relief.

Senate passage paves the way for the House to clear the legislation ahead of government spending running out at midnight on Friday.

Story by Aris Folle
Reports 12/23/2022

The House passed a mammoth $1.7 trillion omnibus package on Friday, capping off weeks of drama to lock down government funding for the next fiscal year.

The bill passed largely along party lines, 225-201-1, a day after the Senate approved the bill in a bipartisan vote. The legislation now heads to President Biden’s desk for his signature.

The passage comes days after Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky’s dramatic visit to Washington, where he met with President Biden and addressed Congress amid questions over whether a GOP House will remain committed to providing assistance to Ukraine.

Look—at the divisions between the Senate and the House and the Democrats and Republicans. In the House, the voting went along party lines.

Remember, the bill’s merits are not the subject of discussion herein. Instead, on the legislative process according to the biblical days.

The 22nd

Weather conditions predominated the nation, from the East coast to the West coast—bringing transportation to a slow halt with a forecast through Christmas.

Considering the significant events, The Judahite returns to the eleventh of December to understand the correlations of twenty-two, although not all events are cited herein.

Supernaturally, a foam cushion appeared before The Judahite, who understood the surrounding circumstance for the proper interpretation.

Before considering the interpretation, the foam has a few definitional meanings, though without naming them familiar to all is the dynamic chemical reaction appearing in manufacturing or generated from an agitated human body.

Consider

1. and a spirit seizes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into a convulsion so that he foams at the mouth; and only with [great] difficulty does it leave him, mauling and bruising him as it leaves. Luke 9:39

Christ commands the spirit to come out

And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. Luke 4:35

Foam of shame

2. wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the deepest darkness has been reserved forever. Jude 1:13

Agitation that creates foam

“But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.” Isaiah 57:20

The results of unrepenting sinners

3. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. Revelation 20:10

Under darkness

And the angels who did not stay within their own domain but abandoned their proper dwelling--these He has kept in eternal chains under darkness, bound for judgment on that great day. Jude 1:6

Grave Importance

Supernaturally the foam appeared on 12/23/2022. (More to be said)