The Mosaic Curses in Perspective.

Yahawah used his priestly people to engineer planetary civilizations. On Mt. Sinai, Yahawah made his Covenant and gave his people moral codes to embrace.

An hour or two before his death in Egypt, Jacob assigned Astro-theological properties to each of his sons. Through these Astro-theological properties, civilizations would expand and grow.

Acting within the Abrahamic Covenant, Jacob assigned Joseph a double portion of real estate to accommodate Ephraim and Manasseh, his two sons.

Moses arrived and gave contextual placement for each of the twelve theological properties of social engineering. Moses knew that a percentage of tribal Ephraim and Manasseh were in the West and East, respectively, and would be instrumental in advancing planetary civilizations.

Additionally, Moses clarified the land boundaries in the Abrahamic Covenant. Abraham first son, Ishmael, had twelve sons, as did Jacob. For many people of today, locating Ishmael’s sons is a troublesome problem. Likewise, trying to find Jacob’s sons. Except for the tribe of Judah, which includes Benjamin and Levite, only because of their melanin.

Most people associate the Arabs with Ishmaelites. Again, Ishmael had twelve sons. As such, there is little logic in assuming the Arabs of the Middle East compose the entire house of the Ishmaelites. The Chinese Ishmaelites make up the most significant percentage of Ishmaelites.

The oldest son serving the youngest is the principle established by the Elohim. Moses acted from this principle by assigning all territories belonging to Ishmael to Judah. The Edenic Judicial Decree implicitly recognizes the first human born of a woman as being the seed of the Serpent. Hence, a divine law that the oldest son serves the youngest.

The Executive Body of Israel will subdue all family members of Ishmael and take full possession of their lands, including the Chinese Ishmaelites.

In sum, the twelve tribes would be scattered to both East and West to aid civilizations' growth and development. Such placement of the twelve Astro-theological properties ensured the satisfaction of the Edenic Judicial Decree of part one; in part two, the total collapse of the fourth social system of imperialism.

The big secret: for civilizations' evolutionary stages of development, the Israelites became functionally embedded in the four social systems' foundations

Finally, as a Babylonian captive, Daniel arrives in world history to make sense of the world. Judah is central for pushing the evolutionary stages of Gentiles' civilizations by integrating Jacob-tithing blessings. Daniel left us with the Man Statue depicting the four social systems for us to track our progressive movement through time.

We must look back at Moses's Road map in order to step into the future with confidence without any missteps.

Once the Mosaic Curses are fully understood as agent properties used to evolve civilizations' growth, we are compelled to review the Big Secret as a function of history. The Big Secret is endowed with Astro-theological engineering properties that engender planetary civilizations. The Big Secret has a rule for advancing cultures. Consider the co-governing rulership model Daniel used as a Babylonian captive yet simultaneously governed by the Magistrate Court of Heaven. Joseph, likewise, used the same model.

Only through a recursive review of the model do we come to a deeper appreciation of where we are going in constructing the most advanced planetary civilization, by us, for us, and as executive-level managers as priestly people per the Stone Kingdom.

Trumpets' celebrations are still in their institutionalized formative stage of maturity. Next year and the following years will see much more designed celebrative contents.

Today, the thrust is on replanting the Israelites in the Lands of Promise. Deuteronomy Chapter 30: 3-9 serves as the organizational thrust for replanting.

The Capitalist's ideology of Racism.

The political economy of racism. A growing percentage of blacks is now finding out how the political economy of racism can work for them. The Black class clique of racialism has taken a page from white women who used gender mistreatment and sexism decades ago to gain billion of dollars. The political economy of sexism, i.e., sexual harassment, continues to be a milking cow for white women.

Each ideological form must be conscious of its self-monetized worth in the commodity social exchange to advance. White men are now crying about discrimination because blacks and other minority groups are taking jobs away. This is a false representation of reality.

Today's generation of white males has not been taught by older white males how the game of political economy is played because today's realities are much more complicated.

White women and a growing black clique have found their self-value in the commercialized social exchanges. The LGBT movement adds to the complexities, forcing the white male to take less from the social wealth of society.

The upshot

A percentage of white women and the Black clique elite want political economy to continue because their social exchanges are protected.

The Real Meaning of Racism.

The global elite knows all about Judah and Israel's end-time roles. The international ruling class knows about biblical prophecies because they have guided world history for the past seven hundred years.

Only the host of heaven can defeat the global elite of Babylon, the Chaldeans, the false prophet, and the Red Dragon.

The ten tribes of Israel and Judah possess the spiritual resources to separate from the system of political economy. But first, they must stop thinking black and color and native Americans.

Tops massacre had the successful design thrust to preserve the mentality of black culture, making it harder for Israelites to break away to accept the promise of Pentecost and the May 30's Action Plan.
