PRESIDENTS COMMENTS

JULY, HAPPY 4th OF JULY EVERYONE. HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA.

Hopefully you are enjoying the summer with lots of activities and painting. May you have a wonderful and safe holiday and lots of good food to enjoy with family and friends. Leave the fireworks to professionals. It is not worth the noise and fire to have a hand or eye blown up with it. Burns are sooooo painful and no-one wants to have any person or animal go thru the agony. But on the light side, watch those in charge set them off. Have you ever put fireworks in a painting? There is a challenge for you. It is a night scene and you could sparkle the background with bursts of color to add to the subject but do not overpower it. You should always tone them down if too bright. Slight tint of fireworks color will reflect on subject. If you want the subject lighter, place them inside and a dark window with fireworks outside. Naming the title caption would also portray your idea of the art work. Titles can be very important to relay the essence or meaning of the art.

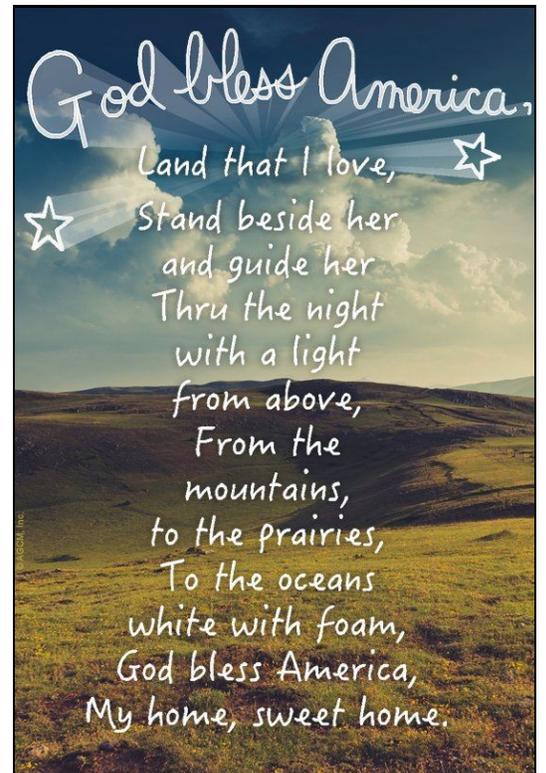

Many times it can portray a place, an activity, an action, a mood, a time, or name of a subject. It brings the viewer into the action and understanding of what is transpiring in what they are looking at. Many old masters put titles of the place of the painting or who the person is. Some put the name of the action taking place, such as a celebration, or a war, or other event. Many have tried to portray Bible events or astrology figures with names included. How about a grumpy cat with fireworks and a humorous title?

MORE pets get LOST on the 4th of July than any other holiday.

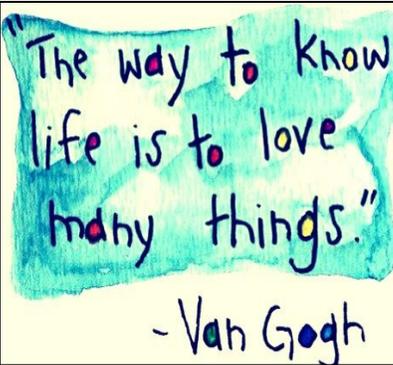

Here are some Friendly reminders for you this 4th of July from the Humane Society of Blue Ridge

- * Leave your PET at HOME - it is better for them to skip the fireworks!
- * If the fireworks are near your home, make sure they are inside during the show.
- * Be sure your pet is wearing an up-to-date and visible ID tag on their collar at all times.
- * Take a current photo of your pet.
- * Exercise your pet early in the day before the parties begin!
- * If your pet is afraid of loud noises, leave gentle music playing to cover the fireworks.

HOLD MORE
PEACE.
-BLESSING-

When you look up, He looks down
When you lift up, He opens up
When you step into the dance, He leads
When you cry, He wipes the tears
When you ask, He answers
When you rise up, He empowers
God is awesome!
