Hello Parrot Friends:

We all know that small businesses in Florida (and all over the world) are experiencing consternation as we take steps to protect our valued customers and dedicated employees.

We were so very excited to see so many of you dining with us today at The Parrot! We assure you that we will follow guidelines set forth by Gov. Ron De Santis to ensure a safe and secure environment at The Parrot throughout the duration of the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond.

Thank you to all of our loyal customers for being patient and for staying with us and offering your continued support as we navigate along, with many other small local businesses, throughout during this unprecedented situation.

Your health and safety is our #1 priority. Not ready to venture out? We understand ... For your convenience, we have added ONLINE ordering for curbside pick-up so that you can enjoy The Parrot from the comfort of home.

NOTE:

As a food & beverage service business, The Parrot is regulated by strict health and sanitation rules by the State of Florida. At The Parrot, we hold ourselves to very high cleanliness and health standards that are designed to maintain a safe and healthy environment in our restaurants. In addition, we remain vigilant in learning more about the COVID-19 virus by monitoring developments closely and keeping informed of additional recommendations from the CDC, WHO, state and local authorities and public health agencies.

We have arranged our tables inside & on the patio to appropriate social distancing measures of 6' in compliance with Gov. Ron Desantis.

Daily disease-prevention measures:

- Hand washing practices are rigorously followed.
- Frequently sanitizing tables, countertops and all commonly touched surfaces.
- Frequently disinfecting restrooms and waiting areas.
- Sanitizing menus, chairs, door handles and other surfaces that are commonly touched.
- Team members are forbidden to work if they are not feeling well
- We have asked each of our team members to inform us of exposure to anyone diagnosed with COVID-19 (Coronavirus) and are asked not to report to work.
- We have requested that team members to not shake hands, hug or have unnecessary contact with our customers.

Please note that we offer online ordering and curbside pick-up during normal business hours.

All of our team members are trained and certified in strategies to reduce food-borne illness and practice safe hygiene. Thank you to our loyal customers for your continued confidence and trust in our team at The Parrot Patio Bar & Grill.
