

Questions to Inspire Your Brightest Future.

If money was no object...
and you did not have to worry about making a living to care for your needs and the needs of your family what would you do?

What god given talents do you have?

What skills have you gained through classes or trainings?

Is there anything you would like to learn?

What would you do for fun?

Are there any places you would like to travel?

What do you love to do that you have not done in a long time or ever?

Is there anything you would do that you have been wanting to do but never think you can afford it?

Where would you live?

What would you like to buy?

Who would you like to visit?

Is there anything you want to experience?
