Swamp Evangelical Lutheran Church

AUGUST 2022

From Pastor Scott

"As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease." –Genesis 8:22 NRSV

The heat is on! As I write this message at the end of July, a heat-wave is upon us. Don't get me wrong, I love the heat much better than the cold of winter, but I could do without the stifling humidity. Consequently, my plans for outdoor projects around the house are a slow go for now. I hope you all are finding ways to stay cool and safe.

Vacation Bible School has just concluded. 17 kids enjoyed Christmas in July along with many teen and adult teachers and helpers. 7 adults joined me in the adult class too. Many thanks to Jen Weitzel, Michelle Brown, the Mellingers Lutheran team, and the other volunteers who made it a success.

As the author of Genesis writes, time marches on. So, we look ahead to end of summer and fall activities at Swamp. In that vein, please take a minute to complete the Worship Preferences Survey. It will help us plan worship and Sunday School times when we return to two services. It's anonymous and online at <https://tinyurl.com/swampworshipsurvey> or via paper (on table in Narthex). Using the online version expedites tabulation.

On August 14, Quinton LeeRoy Rineer, son of Abbey and Zach Rineer, is welcomed into the Christian family through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

On August 21, during worship, we will bless backpacks for our returning students. Students of any age are encouraged to bring their backpacks to worship for a blessing.

September 11 is the Church Picnic (likely with outdoor worship preceding it).

Rally Day with Touch-a-Truck is September 18. Join us as we kick-off the resumption of Sunday School.

Blessing of the Pets will occur on October 2 after worship and Sunday School under the carport. Bring your tame pets to the rear of the church at noon for this special service of blessing.

Also, see the information about God's Work, Our Hands. We need your ideas for projects.

God's blessing and grace to you and yours. See you in church!

Pastor Scott

We will give thanks and praise for our children and the fact that they will have all they need as they begin their school year with our Blessing of the Backpacks. Swamp Lutheran Church & Mellingers Lutheran Church sponsored a successful VBS during July. 17 children from the churches and the community enjoyed the opportunity to learn about Jesus through Bible stories, videos, games, crafts and fellowship. The VBS team and volunteers did an impressive job with their dedication and faithfulness to Jesus and to the children. Thank You. During VBS, Pastor Scott lead an adult class having 7 participants. We are so grateful to ALL for their sacrificial giving of time and talents.

Have you updated your will and remembered the ministry of Christ at Swamp Lutheran?

KNITTERS AND CROCHETERS NEEDED

It has come to our attention that patients at the VA Medical Center in Lebanon need Lap Robes. The size of the Lap Robe needed is 3.5' x 5' and may be knitted, crocheted, or made of fleece. Since the Lap Robes are sent home with the patient when they leave the VA, there is an ongoing need for them. If you currently make prayer shawls, please consider switching to making Lap Robes. Yarn is available from the church, if needed. We will be collecting the Lap Robes in the Church Library. So far the church has delivered 25 lap robes to the VA in Lebanon. Thank you to all continuing to work on this outreach.

GUESS WHO?

I was baptized at Swamp Reform Church when I was 13 years old. I have been very active at Swamp Lutheran Church. I taught the kindergarten class in Sunday School for many years. We would have 15-20 children attend class. Our Sunday School rooms were located where the Social Hall is now. Swamp Lutheran Church was smaller in size then. I also taught at V.B.S. I remember we would have V.B.S. in late June or early July each year and we would have over one hundred children attend. I've always enjoyed nurturing children. They bring so much joy.

I also served on the Entertainment Committee for the Father & Son Banquet. The men always cooked for the Mother & Daughter Banquet. My husband and I always enjoyed attending the church Halloween party. We had so much fun dressing up in costumes. My husband and I were Youth Group Advisors at the time our sons participated in Swamp Society for Youth Partnership. I remember visiting other local church youth groups and sharing in activities together.

I served on the "Pulpit Committee" which is the same as the recent "Call Committee." I helped interview Minister candidates after Pastor Minnich passed away. I remember thinking Pastor Trout and his family were incredibly young. Our congregation was thinking we should pick a younger minister at that time. We had Pastor Minnich for 32 years. Then we had Pastor Trout for 51 years. I was Pastor Trout's secretary for a time.

There have been many changes at Swamp Lutheran Church. We used to take Communion only twice a year—once in the Spring and the second in the Fall. Then Communion went to once a month. Now we have it every Sunday. I have always enjoyed the music at Swamp Lutheran Church. I need to confess I miss singing the old hymns. They are very meaningful to me.

My husband and I were married for 49 years. He worked for Gunzenhauser Bakery in Lancaster, PA. delivering baked goods from house to house. I worked at A.N. Wolf Company in the office. I left this job after 12 years to help my husband run his own business delivering a delicious treat house to house. We had that company for 15 years. I also delivered Meals on Wheels for over 20 years. I enjoy cooking, playing cards, reading Nicholas Sparks books, and doing jigsaw puzzles. I usually have a puzzle set up on my table to work on each day.

I feel prayer is very important. Sometimes you have to wait for God's answer. Waiting is hard. Having people pray for you helps you work through your problems more easily and reminds you that you are not alone.

SCHOOL KITS

LWR SCHOOL KITS— Last year, Swamp assembled and delivered 108 backpacks to the LWR pick-up site. Thank you to all who donated supplies and helped us reach this goal!

We are presently accepting donations of items for this year's Lutheran World Relief School Kit Project through the end of September. Please help make this year's project a success. Donations may be given to Jane Lesher, Denise Null and Connie Taylor. Questions to Debbie Carvell 717-336-5638.

Items most needed: notebooks, scissors, crayons, and pens.

Items not needed: No backpacks (thanks to Jane!) No pencils thanks to a generous donor.

We appreciate everyone following the guidelines listed below, as Lutheran World Relief will not send anything that doesn't adhere to these guidelines. Each backpack will contain:

70-80 sheet notebooks of wide or college ruled paper approximately 8" x 10 ½" – 4 per backpack

30-centimeter ruler or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other side – 1 per backpack

Pencil sharpeners – 1 per backpack

Blunt scissors (safety scissors). (They must say this on the packaging) – 1 per backpack

Unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers – 5 per backpack (We have enough)

Black or blue ink pens – 5 per backpack

Packs of 16 or 24 crayons – 1 pack per backpack

Gently Used Sneakers Needed. Cub Pack 95 is collecting sneakers as a fundraiser. Used sneakers (pairs only; athletic shoes only) may be deposited in the bins located in the Narthex and the social hall lobby. The sneakers will be purchased from the Cubs by an organization that resells or recycles them, saving landfill space and natural resources while helping the Scouts raise money to fund their activities. The Cubs are not able to accept any non-athletic footwear including but not limited to dress shoes, heels, rain boots, sandals, slip-ons, water socks, wedges, and work boots of any kind. ### Ownership

A reflection by Rev. Robert Schnase

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights.”

-James 1:17, NIV

“Fundamentally, we either consider the material things in our life—our money, house, property—as owned by God and belonging to God, and we manage them for God’s purposes, or we view them as owned by us. If they are owned by God, then our tithes and offerings represent our returning to God what belongs to God already. What we keep also belongs to God, and we feel obligated to spend it wisely and not frivolously, and to invest it in ways that do not dishonor God’s purposes. We try not to waste money or to live more lavishly than we should. We spend responsibly, allowing our relationship with God to form our minds. We manage God’s resources as faithfully as we can.

But if we believe that our material resources fundamentally belong to us and that we entirely possess them ourselves, then we can do whatever we please with what we own, and our tithes and offerings are giving something that belongs to us, to God. God should be grateful for our generosity in giving a percentage for God’s purposes rather than our feeling grateful for the privilege of using what belongs to God.

Think about the possession of land. Suppose we hold legal title and own land according to civil authorities. In the larger span of the earth’s history, does our patch of soil actually belong to us, or are we temporary stewards? The land didn’t begin with us and doesn’t end with us. The land we claim to own has existed for millions of years, was used by humans for millennia before us, and will remain for eons more after we are gone. For the ordering of civil life, we rightly say we own the property, and it belongs to us. But our mortality assures that we are only the temporary stewards, managers, and keepers. At our dying, what will the things we own mean to us? Whose will they be? People live and perish, but purposes are eternal. With that understanding comes a profound and humble sense of responsibility about how we use the land. It’s temporarily ours to enjoy, but we do so with respect and awe, because ultimately everything belongs to God, and not to us.

This concrete example applies to all of the temporal elements of our lives—our possessions, our wealth, even our bodies and minds. Which perspective is truer, more ethically sound, more aligned with reality? That it all belongs to us and we can do whatever we want? Or that we are the temporary beneficiaries, and we find meaning in using what God has entrusted to us to the highest purposes?

Which perspective fosters better decisions and deepens a spiritually grounded sense of community and responsibility? The wisdom revealed in Scripture and tradition for more than three thousand years is that those who practice from the perspective of a steward find greater happiness.”

Which of these two views do you hold?

How does this belief shape your actions? Your giving?

“God’s Work. Our Hands.”

We’re looking for new ideas and opportunities for a church-wide day of service!

Is there a service project or organization that you have connections to or feel passionate about? Is the work appropriate for all ages, or at least appropriate for youth grades 6-12 and adults?

If so, please contact Pastor Scott at pastor@swamlutheran.org or Hailey Ranck at herratio3@gmail.com with any ideas or questions.

Our greatest commandment is to love, so we look forward to coming together as a congregation to actively love our neighbors and live out God’s grace through personal acts of service!
