2026 PABCC Show

The new and expanded version of our annual Show & Sale is almost here!

The new Show site is the El Zaribah Shrine Auditorium at 552 N 40th Street, and the dates are February 13-14. We will need club members to help with loading in/out and manning the admission desk. Betty has the details.

January Program

We are thrilled to welcome Julia Taggart, president of the Sunnyslope Historical Society, who will educate and entertain us at the January meeting. The energetic 26 year old Ms. Taggart is the youngest museum president in the country, and is well-respected for her preservation efforts in various Arizona locations. One of her most recent projects was to help obtain historic status for the KPHO building at 1st Avenue and McKinley in downtown Phoenix. Wow! She has also successfully listed the Sunnyslope Rock Garden, Hansen Mortuary, Pedro's Mexican Restaurant, and Sunnyslope Presbyterian Church. Our club is starting off 2026 with a great program. Don't miss this one!

KPHO past and present

February Program

Next in our program lineup will be Mr. Robert Melikian, author of the books Phoenix Past and Present, Vanishing Phoenix, and Hotel San Carlos. Mr. Melikian's family has run the Hotel San Carlos in downtown Phoenix since 1973. His newest book is called Forgotten Phoenix, Or The Art of Hotel Management wherein he describes what living in downtown Phoenix was like as he grew up, with entertaining anecdotes and rarely heard insights of the Hotel San Carlos.

Mr. Melikian presented at our club a few years ago, and we are so happy to welcome him once again.

(Thank you Ed and Connie Dobbins for arranging these speakers.)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

January 2026

Happy New Year PABCC family.

Hope you had a wonderful, joyous Christmas. The new year is about to roll in and pretty soon we'll be holding our 43rd annual antique show, which this year is at a new location for us. The new location (El Zaribah Shrine Auditorium) will allow for more convenient parking and amenities such as a local ATM, cafeteria, and quicker load-in through a large door. I am sure this is one of Arizona's oldest collectible shows. We will discuss more details about the show at our next meeting on January 7.

We have an interesting presentation for our January meeting. We are excited to welcome Julia Taggart, president of the Sunnyslope Historical Society. She is an accomplished preservationist of Arizona historical buildings, and an entertaining speaker.

I hope to see you all at our first meeting of the year. 2026 be a great year for us!

December Potluck Dinner

What a great group of friends we have collected! And so much delicious food! Thank you, Everyone, for attending and making this another holiday gathering to remember. Jerry and Patty George once more arranged a beautiful assortment of antiques and collectibles for the Great Gift Distribution of 2025. And a special Thank You goes to Jim and Arlene Bright who donated a number of items from their collections. It was great to see you again Jim and Arlene!

Wonderful selection of Gifts

Good Job, Jerry and Patty!

More from the Festivities . . .

Conspiracists

Patty and Arlene pick the next winner.

Betsy was giggling over all the possibilities.

Betty considered her selection to be serious work, but found that small treasure she liked.

Kristine found this to accessorize her vintage clothing collection.

Seth scored a really nice commemorative plate.

Bob put his sterling silver Mt.Vernon souvenir spoon to good use on dessert.

Steff, prim and proper when called for, is now ready for tea with the Queen.

Nancy needed more kitchen gadgets? Of course she did. All put to good use.

The wait was worth it for Steve, who got what he wanted from Santa.

Dave and Lisa found what they didn't know they wanted.

Colleen's gorgeous cannister set is in near perfect condition. Thing likes it, too.

Karen's vintage glass duck/reeds figurine is fabulously delicate and pretty. I hope it got back to Mesa intact.

Delon's Tru Treat Grapefruit Drink bottle and glass are from 1960s Nebraska. Was the drink as good as Squirt? The controversy rages on.

Arlene took some photos to remember the night.

*Merry CHRISTMAS
TO ALL AND TO ALL
a good night*
