“DALLAS BRASS”

The Dallas Brass brings energy and precision to their new show, American Portraits, coupled with the powerful vocals of Daniel Rodriguez, “America’s Beloved 911 First Responder”. Their repertoire includes classical masterpieces, Dixieland, Swing, Broadway, Hollywood and Patriotic music, blended with the supreme mastery of Daniel Rodriguez for a unique and memorable experience for the entire family. while venturing into American jazz, South-American Latin styles and European folk music.

COMING September 14, 2019

“SALUTE TO GLEN CAMPBELL”

Nashville artist Jeff Dayton was Glen Campbell’s right-hand man, bandleader and guitarist for 15 years. Together, they toured the world, played all 50 states and appeared on The Today Show and Glen’s PBS special with the South Dakota Orchestra. You will get an intimate look inside the career of this late Hall of Fame artist with music and stories that will make you laugh, cheer, cry and rave.

From the White House to the Grand Ole Opry, Jeff has been playing guitar and performing all his life. He’s a Nashville producer and writer and loves the concentrated creative scene in Music City. His hometown roots in Minnesota and years in Arizona earned him the job of bandleader with Hall of Fame artist Glen Campbell for 15 years. He also found time to land his music degree, regional #1 hit records and the honor of backing artists including Vince Gill, Willie Nelson, Toby Keith, Buck Owens, Tracy Byrd, Bo Diddley, Dizzy Gillespie, Gene Autry, Mac Davis and many more.

SBCCA President’s Message

Lori Logan, President SBCCA

March 2019

Dear South Bay Community Concert Association (SBCCA) Subscriber,

Welcome to our final concert of the season, Dallas Brass! We have had them a couple of times over the past 15 years and anticipate another wonderful, high energy concert.

By now, you should have received your renewal form for our upcoming 2019-2020 season. I am sure you will agree that our board has secured another fantastic season, starting with a “Tribute to Glen Campbell” in the fall. I can’t wait! If you have any questions or need additional information, please go onto our new website, SBconcerts.org.

We are also striving to bring back the 'community' in the South Bay COMMUNITY Concert Association. With that said, if you have a club, troop, school band, or any other non-profit organization you wish to promote or invite to our concerts, please let me, or someone else on the board know. We are looking to include our community more.

Enjoy the show and have a safe and musical summer!

Lori Logan, President

South Bay Community Concert Association

"THOMAS PANDOLFI"

Thomas Pandolfi is an exciting virtuoso who, with each passing season, is becoming more and more sought after by audiences worldwide, and showered with superlatives by critics for his passionate artistry and amazing technique. His remarkably warm and communicative tone uniquely "sings" and projects the poetry and emotion of whatever he plays, not only the classical standards, but also cross-over sensations. His transcriptions of the music of Andrew Lloyd Webber, Leonard Bernstein, Marvin Hamlisch, Burt Bacharach and Barry Manilow are in well-earned high demand. Thomas earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees as a scholarship student at Juilliard.

COMING Saturday November 2, 2019

"CAFÉ MUSIQUE"

Café Musique lives up to its name with a musical pallet that includes gypsy, swing, tango, folk and their self-defined genre, "wild classical". The five members seem to eat, sleep and breathe music. They're from the central coast of California and all five come from wildly different backgrounds, but together they've found kindred music spirits in one another. Having performed around the world and on the stages of several world-class music festivals, Café Musique has made thousands of fans of their powerful, emotive and beautiful sound. They have shared the stage with Doc Severinsen, David Grisman Quintet and Los Lobos and performed and recorded with Grammy award winner Louis Ortega, musical Joe Craven, songwriter Jill Knight and Broadway vocalist Sarah Kleeman.

COMING Saturday January 25, 2019

"THE SHAUN JOHNSON BIG BAND EXPERIENCE"

We're happy to introduce you to the new generation of big band music with musicians who have toured with the likes of Aretha Franklin, Robert Randolph and the Family Band and New Kids on the Block. We feature Shaun Johnson - an Emmy-winning singer/songwriter who has sold nearly two million albums and can croon and softly belt out lost love a la Sinatra. Looking for the big band sound? You'll find it with The Shaun Johnson Big Band Experience!
