MINISTRY PROFILE

Since 2004, I have served continuously in local church ministry with the last 17 years as a Lead Pastor. The Lord has helped those churches through significant challenges, including resolving deep-rooted internal conflicts, updating neglected facilities, and overcoming financial hardships. By building consensus, cultivating new leaders, and promoting fiscal responsibility, these churches have seen God do incredible work.

I affirm the Baptist Faith & Message 2000, The Danvers Statement on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood, The Nashville Statement on Biblical Sexuality, and the Chicago Statement on Biblical Inerrancy.

ENDORSEMENTS

Serving under Micheal as a board member with the NC Baptist State Convention gave me insight into his leadership. He had a great presence when speaking to groups, he was very open-minded and willing to listen to different points of view. He demonstrated a continuous care for the integrity of the convention and its leadership. Finally, he tirelessly traversed the state building awareness and support for the convention. Probably the most impactful and important thing I could share about Micheal is the family he and Rachel parent - seven children, four of which are adopted. They go beyond what James 1:27 calls believers to do, visit orphans, they have welcomed them into their family.

Denise O'Donoghue, Ed.D.

Director of Counseling Training,
Imago Dei Church, Raleigh, NC

Dr. Pardue is a man of sterling Christian character with a great love for the Lord and the Lord's people. He is intelligent, articulate, highly perceptive, and dedicated. He possesses a positive disposition, a warm and reflective way of dealing with people, and all of the character traits of a master teacher. I have found him to be dedicated, passionate, enthusiastic, and cheerful. He is highly organized and has a passion for missions and for teaching and preaching the Word of God. I highly recommend him without reservation or hesitation as a high caliber leader.

Ed Yount, D.Min.

Pastor Emeritus

Woodlawn Baptist Church, Conover, NC
Former President, NC Baptists

There is one word that characterizes Micheal Pardue and it's the word faithful. He's faithful to his family, church, students, and faithful to the Word of God. Pleasing God is his singular focus. He is one that the Lord will say on that Day, well done my good and faithful servant!
