

WHO DOESN'T WANT A UNICORN BADGE?

Ok, maybe not everyone wants a unicorn badge. But if you are in the grownup world, you do want to promote your business, kit out your club or just accept the unicorn badge is now for your daughters dressing gown!

Your logo can be created onto silk or flock material, shaped and sized to your requirements. You can then adhere the badge to your garment with a hot iron.

The beauty of the material not only retains your branded colours but are also extremely flexible, making these ideal for corporate branded clothing and sport tops.
