Terms & Conditions

I, Nicholas Cushine, am the proprietor and representative of Nick's Driving School.

Be fit to drive: Prescribed drugs that will affect your driving must be made clear to your driving instructor at the start of each lesson. You must hold a current and valid driving licence which must be produced on your first driving lesson, and at regular intervals throughout your training. Any changes to your driving licence due to medical conditions or driving convictions must be communicated to me immediately. If I think you are unfit to drive for failing to meet any of these conditions, the lesson will be cancelled at your expense. I cannot accept responsibility for any injury, loss or damage arising from a driving lesson.

Lesson payments: Lessons will work on a prepaid basis. All lessons should be pre paid to secure the date and payment can be made by either calling me on 07852505496 or by using the in car payment machine. Payment methods are debit or credit card but please note if paying by card a transaction fee may apply. Refunds will only be made in exceptional circumstances.

If you suspend taking any pre-paid tuition for a period of 12 weeks or more, any remaining tuition owed will be forfeited. Prices may be varied at any time with reasonable notice.

Cancellation: 48 hours notice is required to cancel any driving lesson and will be charged at the full rate of 100%. If you suspend taking your driving lessons within a block of pre paid lessons for a period of 12 weeks or more, then any remaining lessons will be forfeited. If taking your driving test and the DVSA examiner cancels the test prior to arrival at the test centre the full lesson price will be charged. Please note that any cancellation of tests are out with Nick's Driving Schools control and any complaints should be made direct to the DVSA.

Lessons: Your driving lesson will be on a one to one basis. I will be happy to start and finish your lesson from different locations, providing these are agreed at the previous lesson, and that both are within the usual area of my work and convenient for me.

Penalties: Whenever you are driving in the school vehicle, you will be under close supervision. However, Nick's Driving School cannot be held responsible for any infringement of the law. Any fines that are incurred will be the responsibility of the driver.

Complaints: These should be made to Nick's Driving School in the first instance, if you are unhappy with the reply you can contact the DVSA who will then investigate the complaint made and will reply in due course with their findings

By taking driving lessons with Nick's Driving School it is accepted that you have read and agree to these terms and conditions
