CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Baby & Me – Introducing the baby to water with fun play. Parent must accompany child in the water.

Guppy - Child is seeking more confidence in the water. In this level we learn to dunk head underwater, basic floats, and swimming with assistance. Parent must accompany child in the water.

Trout - Child can float and doggie paddle with some assistance and must be comfortable being underwater. This level is for improving and solidifying basic swimming skills. Parent must accompany child in the water.

Pike - Child must be able to float, and swim above and below water without any assistance. This level is for improving technique and gaining confidence in deep water.

Jr. Swim Club - Swim club is for swimmers who have the skills of a Pike but looking to perfect their swimming technique, learn new skills and water safety (feel free to check with Recreation Director for criteria).

The descriptions are suggestions for placement. To ensure safety, the final placement will be determined by one of the Lifeguards. A Lifeguard will contact you prior to class. All age groups must have a parent/guardian in attendance during class. These classes are not Red Cross certified.
