Dudley Conservation Land Trust

To some a tree
is just a tree....
...but to many creatures it gives food and shelter...
...to all of us
it provides oxygen
and clean water...
...to the earth
it offers carbon sequestration.

A non-profit land trust devoted to the protection of land and open space in Dudley and surrounding communities.

Dudley Conservation Land Trust

is dedicated to saving the natural and scenic lands of the Dudley community for:

- a healthier environment,
- quiet recreation,
- wildlife habitat protection,
- and enjoyment of nature.

What we offer

Land Protection

Protecting the land you love can be a daunting task. The Dudley Conservation Land Trust helps landowners decide what works best to protect their land.

Community Outreach

Educational programs, nature walks, spring plant sale, bi-annual newsletter, and scholarships

Wildlife Sanctuaries

- Keekamoochaug and Tufts Branch Wildlife Sanctuaries, 87 acres on Healy Road, Dudley, with trails through field and forest
- Slater Woods and Hiland Park, 138 acres on Dudley-Oxford Road. Trail to Peter Pond
- Leovich Landing, 4 acres, boat launch on French River, Dudley Road, Oxford

How we do it

Volunteers: we are an all-volunteer, non-profit organization.

Memberships: donations from membership cover our operating expenses.

Fundraising and Grants: cover land acquisition, stewardship, and equipment.

Partnerships: we work with other conservation organizations to enhance our outcomes.
