INMATE PRAYER REQUESTS

2.17.25

I would like for you to pray for my children's mother. and my sons.

I ask for prayer for my wife and family. Parents, Grandparents, Father-in-law. I pray for strength and encouraging within to instill faith and confidence in the Lord. Thank you and God Bless.

That me and my family be pulled out the dark place we been in since my mother passed away. And that we get our personal relationship back with God where it need to be.

I want what God has for me in life and pray that my plan line up with His will and I want to be accepted for who I am. Not for my medical condition. I pray to be more humble please Lord.

That You God would help with my daughters and that we would reconcile our relationship for His glory. J's mom is worried about leaving the country – could you put in her heart that Your hedge of protection is in her life at work and that she turn to God for help and her salvation. My other daughters salvation too.

Lord's will be done for myself and my two brothers. That if it be the Lord's will we will be transferred to Columbia CI. Also protection for all my loved ones to keep them safe especially my sons.

Prayer that I am able to rebuild my walk once again in my relationship with God. Also to look over me while I'm incarcerated and that I may find a way to restart life once I'm released and not just going to be left with nothing when I'm released. To be able to come up with a plan to restart life.

My family, my wife, sons, my nephew and all the prisoners and officers in the prison.

I want to ask for prayer of a brother who is living in darkness. I will like to ask that prayer is continued for him and God will show His light on this brother more and more. Thank You.

Prayer for my family and for me to continue looking for the Word of God and I want hope on my life.

Pray for me all over.

That my relationship with my family is restored. The strain of separation due to my choices that lead me to prison has slowly begun to weaken our commitment. We seek and ask for the Lord's guidance and strength to make the best choice moving forward.
