Top seller brings $5,700 at 13th Cream of the Crop sale

It was a beautiful, crisp fall weekend on Oct. 2-3, 2020, in Corydon, Ind., for the 13th annual Cream of the Crop Kiko Sale.

It was the first sale that many had attended this year as Covid-19 restrictions began to be lifted — and pent-up demand was evident.

There was a large crowd on hand for Saturday's sale with many more watching from home via DVAuction. Online bidders purchased 14 lots for $17,550 — 15% of total sales.

The overall average on a total of 90 lots was $1,313 per lot.

The breakdown included:

- 57 100% New Zealand does sold for an average of $1,524.
- 17 100% New Zealand 2020 doelings sold for an average price of $1,076.
- 5 purebred does sold for an average of $690 per head.
- 3 purebred 2020 doelings brought an average of $633 per head.
- 4 bucks brought an average of $1,212 but the high-seller, a Triple M Kikos consignment, brought $3,000 — boosting the average.
- 6 semen lots averaged $1,067 per lot.
- 2 embryo lots sold for an average of $675 per lot.

The high-seller of the sale was a doe consigned by JD Ranch of Waddy, Ky. The January 2019 NZ doe was purchased for $5,700 on the Internet by Terry Sweitzer of Pennsylvania.

The high-selling buck was purchased by Hubbard Hill Kikos of Ponca City, Okla.

High volume buyers were Mike and Lori Renick of West Virginia, purchasing six lots — five does and two straws of Iron Horse semen — for a total of $10,050. The Iron Horse semen sold for $800 per straw.

The sale was called by Pit Kemmer. ■

Mike and Lorie Renick were the volume buyers.
