

Welcome Back

Since our whole World has changed, some things we do here at the Parrot Cove have changed as well.

While we have had to reduce our seating to accommodate "social distancing" we have also reduced our menu offerings to reduce waste in these uncertain times. If you don't see an old favorite please ask your server and if the ingredients and time allows, we would be happy to accommodate you. If we can't make it now, by letting us know perhaps it will return "by popular demand."
