

A Brief History of Nearly Everything...

It started with a golf school in Florida in 1997. Only 4 attended. Modest beginnings but a start none the less.

The West Coast Swing started in earnest in 2001. Looking back they were simpler times: Many people celebrate the beginning of the new millennium - the 21st Century. George W. Bush succeeds Bill Clinton as President of the United States after being chosen over Al Gore by the supreme court in the disputed and controversial U.S. presidential election, 2000. The Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, in Super Bowl XXXV. Apple Computer releases the now famous iPod. Top Selling album: Linkin Park - Hybrid Theory Highest Grossing movie: Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone Only 4 seasons old, the Arizona Diamondbacks became the youngest franchise to win a World Series by defeating the New York Yankees 4 games to 3. NCAA Men's Basketball Championship: Duke wins 82-72 over Arizona.

Everyone was excited about Arizona

Now in its 7th year, the West Coast Swing is the premier golf weekend amongst the fellas. The storied history is steeped in tradition and elitism.
