H.I.T. Financial loses clients to Alter Ego

Steve DudesAss' firm "Honesty, Integrity, Trust Financial" lost a significant number of clients this past year to a competing firm run by DudesAss' alter ego, DARYL.

"I can confirm that "Lie, Cheat and Steal Funds" had about 200% returns in 2015 said DARYL" in a phone interview this week.

"Look, it's not like people don't like working with Steve, he's a great guy" said Ricky Kozlowski, a long time client of HIT. "But when DARYL and the guys at Lie Cheat & Steal are pumping out 200%+ returns by lying cheating and stealing...it kinda makes you rethink the strategy."

"Yes, I have an alter ego, and yes he is better at investing than me," said DudesAss from his Chicago office. "He doesn't do CNBC though..."

Financial experts have been impressed with DARYL's diabolical approach. "DudesAss is a bull on Chipotle. DARYL, meanwhile, shorted it right after contaminating about a third of their chicken with salmonella." Said Steven A Cohen, "that takes balls."

"Steve's a big pussy," said DARYL from his office in the penthouse of the Wynn Hotel in Las Vegas. "I'd kick his ass everyday if it didn't mean I'd mess up this impeccable hair".

Lisa, Steve's wife agrees. "I love Steve and he's a great father, but there's a time when you just want something a little more edgy and sinister... DARYL does that for me. Does that for me good."

Will this be a factor in this years WCS?

"I fucking love golf, I'm like a 2 handicap," says DARYL, "and I pretty much cheat every hole, so blow me."

"I am not a 2 handicap, I'm not actually very good at golf" says DudesAss....with the utmost Honesty.
