Lyrics

01 Dream again

"Dream again, believe again"

Childhood full of patterns and shining eyes. Nothing was boring, everything was anticipation – Christmas as the magic of naivety.

When I was a child,
the nights would fall
And Christmas came with a sacred call
The same old pattern, year by year
Yet wonder grew,
not fading here

The table set,
the family near
A gentle bell we longed to hear

Naive and bright,
those glowing eyes
Believing gifts came from the skies
Our parents' hands,
their tender art
Let children dream with open hearts

Dream again, believe again!

The tree adorned with lights that burned Wrapped-up secrets, lessons learned
We thought the Christ Child placed them there While love was hidden everywhere

Tradition held,
it made us strong
The same old ways,
a timeless song

Naive and bright,
those glowing eyes
Believing gifts came from the skies
Our parents' hands,
their tender art
Let children dream with open hearts

How sweet it was,
how pure,
how true
The gift was love they gave to you

Dream again, believe again!

Naive and bright,
those glowing eyes
Believing still in soft goodbyes
The world may change,
the years depart
But Christmas lives inside the heart

02 Home for Christmas Eve

"Nothing feels like home tonight"

A flight from afar, landing just before Christmas Eve. The radio plays "Driving Home for Christmas" – and at the end waits the embrace of love.

I left the desert
A distant land
With ticket hope held in my hand
Through crowded halls
The planes and gates
I prayed that I would not be late
And when the wheels touched down, I knew That Christmas joy was breaking through

Home for Christmas Eve at last
The waiting's over
The miles are past

The radio played
The lights so bright
Nothing feels like home tonight

Nothing feels like home tonight

I ran with bags through winter air
A racing heart
The streets were bare
The car was cold
But music played
And every mama feels allayed

The voice was singing Soft and clear
Driving home for Christmas in my ear

Home for Christmas Eve at last
The waiting's over
The miles are past

The radio played
The lights so bright

And in her arms the world was new
The love I missed came shining through The season's gift
The sweetest part
Is finding home within the heart

Nothing feels like home tonight

Home for Christmas Eve at last
The waiting's over
The miles are past

The stars above
The firelight
Nothing feels like home tonight

03 Under the Holy Star

"Faith was born, hope was near"

Midnight mass, the voices of the parish, the pastor telling the story of Christ's birth. Children believe – and the night carries its wonder.

Soft bells in the night,
a whispering choir

Most nights we slept, as children do
But Christmas Eve was something new Allowed to stay,
our eyes so wide
To walk the night by candlelight

The church was filled with voices strong We listened close,
the sacred song

Under the holy star we'd stand
The world made small,
the night so grand
Stories told of a child so mild
A King was born for every child

Faith was born,
hope was near!

The priest spoke of love and grace
Our pastor's voice, a guiding place
He told of Mary's gentle care
Of kings who followed starlight there

We sat in awe, our hearts believed
In every word, in all received

Under the holy star we'd stand
The world made small,
the night so grand
Stories told of a child so mild
A King was born for every child

Our pastor spoke, the silence kept
The stories lit the hearts that wept
He was the voice, both firm and kind
That shaped the faith in children's minds

Faith was born,
hope was near!

Under the holy star we'd stand
With childlike trust,
hand in hand

Though years may pass, the light is clear
Faith was born,
and hope is here

04 Christmas Eve with Friends

"Raise your glass, the night is ours"

Coming of age in full speed: the first car, youthful freedom, a wild party with friends. Laughter, music, headaches – and memories that stay forever young.

Eighteen years and a car that flew
The night was young,
the skies were blue
I left my home with love inside
But friends were waiting, wild and wide

The laughter rang, the bottles clinked
The night was brighter than we'd think

Christmas Eve with friends, so loud
We sang our songs,
we cheered the crowd
The world was ours,
the stars aligned
A crazy joy we'd never find

Raise your glass,
the night is ours!

The records spun,
the speakers shook
We played our lives like an open book
No thought of sleep, just time to live
That Christmas Eve had more to give

The morning came,
our heads were sore
But still we knew what nights were for

Christmas Eve with friends, so loud
We sang our songs,
we cheered the crowd
The world was ours,
the stars aligned
A crazy joy we'd never find

The years may pass, the times may change
But memories stay,
they still remain
Of youth and fire,
of endless hours
Of Christmas nights and reckless powers

Raise your glass,
the night is ours!

Christmas Eve with friends, so loud
We sang our songs,
we cheered the crowd
Though days have flown, the spark survives
That Christmas keeps our joy alive

05 Tradition Lives

"Still we gather, still we pray"

We have grown older, but Christmas Eve still holds us together. No more childish innocence, but the deep longing for peace, closeness, and a familiar table.

The years went by
We changed
We grew
The childlike faith no longer new But Christmas Eve still calls us home
No heart should face this night alone

The table set
The candles glow
A quiet peace the night bestows

The tradition lives
It carries on

Through every year
The same old song
Though innocence has slipped away
The joy of Christmas finds its way

Still we gather
Still we pray!

We tell the tales of nights before
Of shepherds' watch
The stable door
No longer children
Yet we feel
The hope of love Eternal, real

The circle holds the bond is near
A gentle truth returns each year

The tradition lives
It carries on

Through every year
The same old song
Though innocence has slipped away
The joy of Christmas finds its way

And even grown
Our hearts still yearn
For light and peace the world must learn

The past remains
The future calls
But Christmas spirit binds us all

Still we gather
Still we pray!

The tradition lives
It carries on
Through every year
The same old song

The world may change
The years may fly
But Christmas keeps its flame alive

06 Snowflakes

"Let it sparkle, everywhere"

Children laughing, snowflakes falling, the Christmas market alive. Voices, scents, lights – the lightness of winter turns even cold nights bright.

Snow is falling,
soft and bright
Children laughing in the night

Lanterns glowing, streets are wide
Magic drifting far and wide

Every corner shines with cheer
The best time of the year is here

Snowflakes in the air tonight
Dancing free in the winter light
Hearts are warm,
the skies are fair

Let it sparkle, everywhere!

Let it sparkle, everywhere!

Friends are singing side by side Market stalls with cider, pies Gloves and scarves, the fire's glow
Footsteps crunching in the snow

Every song is loud and clear
The best time of the year is here

Snowflakes in the air tonight
Dancing free in the winter light
Hearts are warm,
the skies are fair
Let it sparkle, everywhere!

All together, hand in hand
Christmas shines across the land Every smile,
a gift to share
The spirit lives,
it's always there

Let it sparkle, everywhere!

Snowflakes in the air tonight
Dancing free in the winter light
The world is bright, beyond compare

Let it sparkle, everywhere!

07 Hope Was Born

"Christmas heals, Christmas unites"

A reminder that Christmas stands above principles. Hope, forgiveness, peace – and the invitation to open the heart.

The years have changed
Our lives have too
Some friends are lost
Yet stories grew
At Christmas time we stand above
The walls we built
The hands unloved

The candle's flame
It softly speaks
Of fragile days
Of hearts we seek

Hope was born on a silent night
Forgiveness shines in a gentle light
Who are we to close the door
When grace invites us to restore

Christmas heals
Christmas unites!

The table set
The voices blend
We find beginnings in each end
The past reminds
The future calls
Yet Christmas spirit binds us all

The star still glows
The truth is near
It whispers love from year to year

Hope was born on a silent night
Forgiveness shines in a gentle light
Who are we to close the door
When grace invites us to restore

Life is short
The moments flee
But Christmas shows what life can be To open hearts,
to make things right
To turn the darkness into light

Christmas heals
Christmas unites!

Hope was born on a silent night
Forgiveness shines in a gentle light
The world may change,
The years may fly

But Christmas keeps its flame alive

Together here,
your hand in mine
The world outside can fade away
We hold the joy of Christmas Day

Candlelight and laughter shine!

the wine is poured
The fire glows,
our hearts restored
No greater gift could ever be Than love that sets the spirit free

09 Light Beyond the Night

"Love remains, we'll meet again"

A Christmas in grief. Remembering a father who passed – and the Christian hope that he is not gone, only gone before us.

A week before the Christmas glow
We watched the fading candle slow

Your final day, so near, so clear And Christmas came with silent tears

The tree was lit, the carols played Yet grief and love together stayed

Light beyond the night will shine
Through sorrow's dark, through fragile time

Though death may come, it won't divide
For love and hope still walk beside

Love remains, we'll meet again!

You told us not to fear the end
That heaven waits, our souls ascend

Not gone from us, just gone before We'll meet beyond that shining door

And in the silence, faith was near A whispered truth for us to hear

Light beyond the night will shine
Through sorrow's dark, through fragile time

Though death may come, it won't divide

Christmas belongs to memory too
To those we lost, yet still hold true

The birth of Christ, the promise made That death itself can't make us fade

Love remains, we'll meet again!

Light beyond the night will shine
Through every tear, through sacred time

For Christmas speaks, in joy, in pain
That we shall rise, we'll meet again

10 Christmas

"This is Christmas, this is love"

A hymn. Hope, love, peace, and community all bound together in a single message: Christmas shows the world can be one.

A child was born,
the night was still A light that shines, a holy will Through darkest times, the hope began
A savior's gift,
His love for all
This is Christmas,
this is love!

The story lives,
the truth remains Through joy and tears, through loss and gains

Christmas brings the world to one
A time of peace for everyone
The stars above,
the heart will prove
This is Christmas,
this is love!
This is Christmas,
this is love!

The family gathers,
hand in hand
The fire glows across the land
For those in need,
for hearts alone
This season calls us all back home
This is Christmas,
this is love!

The angel's song,
the heavens near
The voice of peace is loud and clear

Christmas brings the world to one
The stars above,
the heart will prove
This is Christmas,
this is love!
This is Christmas,
this is love!

Through every land,
through every tongue
The bells of joy are always rung
A single night, yet truth so deep
The gift of Christ our souls will keep

Hope remains,
the light will stay
It guides us on through night and day
The gift of life,
the grace above
The endless truth: the power of love
This is Christmas,
this is love!
This is Christmas,
this is love!

Christmas brings the world to one
The stars above,
the heart will prove
This is Christmas,
this is love!
This is Christmas,
this is love!

This is Christmas,
this is love!
This is Christmas,
this is love!

12 Child Within

"Let the child within be free"

The grand finale: the invitation to let the child inside come alive again. To wonder, laugh, forgive – Christmas as the doorway to our inner child.

We chase the years
We run the race
We wear the masks
We keep the pace
But Christmas calls
A gentle plea
To see the world
More honestly

The truth is simple, Bright, and near
A childlike voice,
We still can hear

Let the child within be free
See the world
With clarity
Laugh and wonder
Dance
Forgive
That's the way
We're meant to live

Let the child within be free!

Five lines bent
We let them slide
No need for walls
Where hearts can hide
Through smaller eyes
The world feels wide
And hope comes rushing Back inside

The greatest gift,
We've ever known
Is love
That children freely show

Let the child within be free
See the world
With clarity
Laugh and wonder
Dance
Forgive
That's the way
We're meant to live

When life is hard
When nights are long Recall the joy
Recall the song
The child we were Still speaks today
And guides us
On the gentlest way

Let the child within be free!

Let the child within be free
That's the truth
Of Christmas Eve
Every heart
Both old and new
The child within Still carries through
Let the child within be free
That's the truth
Of Christmas Eve
