

The V.L. Foundation Scholarship for the Advancement of Education

The Damico & Williams Scholarship for Communications Application

This scholarship is in honor of the grandparents of board members Angela Damico and Shawanda Williams. Effective communication is a must when leaving high school and entering into the next chapter of life. Communication is a skill that is a continuing process. The grandparents of both Ms. Damico and Ms. Williams used communication to guide their descendants as they walked through the journey of life.

This opportunity awards a scholarship to academically talented and highly motivated students pursuing a degree in communication.

This scholarship will be in the amount of $500.00 for one first-time incoming college freshman.
