

From a young age, my passion for design and system functionality in architecture has fueled my interest. With a BSc in Architectural and Urban Design from the University of Union Nikola Tesla in Belgrade, I've delved into diverse architectural typologies. Constant across architectural realms has honed my ability to seamlessly integrate varied themes. Through participation in competitions and collaboration with global companies, I've developed a profound appreciation for architecture as both art and science. This has deepened my understanding of adapting architectural components for a sustainable and resilient future.
