The above listed reentry and client enter into agreement under which the client is agreeing to

- complete Phase II 12-month program once client is released from jail or prison.

The primary goal is to lower the recidivism rate through education and training. Upon enrolling in the program

- participants will sign an agreement to attend as required,
- follow all the rules of the program and complete the program as scheduled.

In the event, that the participant does not follow the rules of the program, they will be referred to the agency of referral, and possibly dropped and/or terminated from the program. This program is an intensive reentry program that has mandatory participation from the beginning to the end. Under this agreement client must

- live no more than 50 miles away from Phase II location.

If client is outside of required mileage, client must agree to

- home visits and
- online classes.
- Community Service hours will be required from each participant.

Client must have

- 2 family references and support for client during required program cycle.
- Client must be approved by Phase II board members before acceptance in program.
