Commanders Report

Compatriots, I am beyond pissed, and I hope you are too! This past month has been one attack after another and were being hit from all sides. Common sense and reason are long gone. August has been the worst month in Confederate history in the last 100 years. I will say I was proud of this camps turnout for the rally in San Antonio on August 12th. (Things were on shaky ground before that date). But as you know that was the day everything went to hell with the set up in Chancellorsville. And since that time Confederate monuments have fallen like dominoes. We have lost the monument at Travis Park, we have lost the rest of the statues on the UT campus, and most recently we almost lost Lee statue in lee Park in Dallas. The courts and judges are no help to intercede in this injustice as the federal judge in San Antonio refused to her our request for a TRO. The Texas Supreme Court refused to hear our case against UT, and while the judge in Dallas granted a 1 day TRO it was dissolved.

With all that said we still have a lot of work to do in Dallas to protect the Confederate monument in Pioneer Plaza. So we will be needing all hands on deck for that one. On September 16 at Dallas City Hall Plaza the SCV and TIFP will be having Confederate Heritage Rally from 11am to 3pm. Bring your flags and your friends and show the city of Dallas were not going down without a fight. Continuing on a happy note, I want to be sure everyone knows this meeting will be our camp chartering ceremony and swearing in of the officers. The all the new and transfer members will be signing the charter and as my brother Pig Pen says we will all be OG's Original Gano's so please make plans to attend (I hear there will be cake lol).

Confederately yours,
Craig (Hoss) Stone
Commander

Chaplains Corner

Papa told me one time that "...growing cotton takes a lot of work". Papa and his two brothers Uncle Ed and Uncle Bill owned about three hundred acres of prime black soil land about three miles outside the little town of Hutto. Papa also ran the "gin" in Hutto and also raised some cattle on the other side of the road across from the cotton field.

I followed Papa across the field he was greeted by a much younger Hispanic man. Mom exclaimed, "That's Little Joe". Little Joe didn't look little to me, but in the distance I could see about a dozen or so folks working the field. Mom told me that that group of workers were "choppin' cotton". Papa disappeared into the group of workers to check on the progress with Little Joe Papa told me later that evening, "Son, growing cotton takes work to get it just right. You need to chop it to keep the weeds out or it won't grow and if the weather is hot and you think the cotton will wilt the morning" dew perks it right up." Mom would tell that story to me about a dozen times and come to think about it...that is true. I saw it for myself.

"The truth will set you free" is a common saying in academic circles that want to promote academic freedom and the power of learning. In fact the University of Texas has this saying in front of the tower entrance to the Union Building. But, "the truth will set you free" did not originate in academia; Jesus said it in John 8:32. In context, Jesus' statement has nothing to do with classroom learning. In fact, John 8:32 speaks of a higher room of knowledge that is capable of being learned in a classroom.

Almost two thousand years ago, Truth was put on trial and judged by people who were devoted to lies. In fact, Truth faced six trials in less than one full day, three of which were religious, and three that were legal. In the end, few people involved in those events could answer the question, "What is truth?" In today's postmodern world that denies that truth can be known, the question is more important than ever to answer. What is truth?

In defining truth, it is first helpful to note what truth is not:

Truth is not simply whatever works. This is the philosophy of pragmatism – an ends-vs.-means-type approach. In reality, lies can appear to "work," but they are still lies and not the truth.

Truth is not simply what is coherent or understandable. A group of people can get together and form a conspiracy based on a set of falsehoods where they all agree to tell the same false story, but it does not make their presentation true.

Truth is not what makes people feel good. Unfortunately, bad news can be true.

Truth is not what the majority says is true. Fifty-one percent of a group can reach a wrong conclusion.

Truth is not what is comprehensive. A lengthy, detailed presentation can still result in a false conclusion.

Truth is not defined by what is intended. Good intentions can still be wrong.

Truth is not how we know; truth is what we know.

Truth is not simply what is believed. A lie believed is still a lie.

Truth is not what is publicly proved. A truth can be privately known(example, location of buried treasure).

The greek word for "truth" is aletheia, which literally means to "un-hide" or "hiding nothing." It conveys the thought that truth is always there, always open and available for all to see, with nothing being hidden or obstructed. The Hebrew word for "truth" is emeth, which means "firmness," "constancy" and "duration." Such a definition implies an everlasting substance and something that can be relied upon. You may be asking yourself now, where is Bowen going with this? Well let us take a look at what Gen. Robert E. Lee said: There is a terrible war coming, and these young men who have never seen war cannot wait for it to happen, but I tell you, I wish that I owned every slave in the South, for I would free them all to avoid this war. Racist?

There are few, I believe in this enlightened age, who will not acknowledge that slavery as an institution is a moral and political evil. Racist?

A land without memories is a people without liberty. A nation which does not remember what it was yesterday does not know where it is today.

Camp News

For one of the first projects for this new camp we have purchased a veterans head stone to be set in place at the Justin cemetery. Justin Cemetery is located south of Justin, Denton County, TX on FM 156. David Cate was a founding member of the Robert E. Lee UCV camp in Ft Worth. We need to set a date to get this in the ground before winter.

There will be other camp projects coming in the future also, like cemetery cleanup in other towns and Kyle Sims has TWO more headstones to place, one in Paris, TX and the other in Paul's Valley, OK.

3rd Brigade News—Educational Seminar

Guest speaker Donnie Kennedy

On Friday, August 4th, I drove to Ft Worth to attend the Education Seminar sponsored by the 3rd Brigade, Texas Division Sons of Confederate Veterans (SCV). Arrived Friday evening and went to supper at a Mexican Restaurant at the Stockyards. There were about 6 or 8 there for good food and some great Confederate conversation.

Next morning I went to the day-long seminar at the Country Club. There were 58 attending, not including speakers. There were Confederates in attendance from several areas in Texas. Kirt Barnett spoke about the History of Slavery, Dr. Richard Montgomery talked about the Sectional Differences Between North & South, Jack Dyess addressed the Causes of the War - Texas Annexation to Missouri Compromise, Cynthia Harriman talked about the Jefferson Davis Prewar Years, and Donnie Kennedy spoke about Fort Sumter - Why and Consequences.

It was said that we don't need leadership training, we need education of our membership - education like that in this seminar. It's about time that somebody in the SCV is saying that and several said the same thing that day.

The Texas Division didn't want anything to do with this seminar. None of their officers attended.

There were tables with educational material. I took several about the Pledge of Allegiance and I'm passing these to men who have never heard the truth.

All the speakers were very good and had excellent topics for this seminar. Donnie Kennedy was the last speaker of the day. He received a standing ovation.

Next year, attend this seminar. If you're unreconstructed, you will never regret going to this seminar. Our Confederate ancestors were right! Sincerely, Charley Wilson

Texas Division News - Texas Monuments Being Removed

Clinton Stone & Billy Goar flagging Lee before the barricades.

As I am sure you have heard that San Antonio moved quickly and tore down the only Confederate monument in the city. Then University of Texas finished cleaning the mall of all the rest of the statues. They obviously do not teach Texas History there anymore. On top of all that now the liberal Dallas city council has decided to move quickly and remove all things Confederate and liberal Mayor Mike Rawlings has agreed and has let the City Council take control instead of letting the citizens vote or let the Monument task committee that the Mayor asked to be formed to do their job.

I was personally at the Dallas City Council meeting when they voted to remove everything Confederate related within the city limits. Let me tell you they are evil and full of hate. One council member said “we are not trying to erase history, we are trying to correct history.” They have had some road blocks, first we the Texas Division got a TRO for about 24 hours and then just recently the crane coming up from Houston to hook up and remove Lee was in a fatality wreck and is now not useable.

Army of Trans-Mississippi News - Houston & Harvey

Was great to see Southerners coming together in Houston to help out.

San Antonio and Dallas City governments should take note.

National News - Virginia Monuments

Virginia has had many attacks upon their monuments including Richmond's famous monument avenue.

Some good news out of Surry, Va. The Board of Supervisors met tonight and the County Attorney advised them the monument was protected and could not be moved. Period. End of story.

Translation: Hey liberals. Sit down and shut up. We don't care how much you stomp your feet and pitch a fit, we are not giving in to your tantrum. We honor our history and heritage and don't need outsiders telling us how to handle our business.

Confederate Veterans of Famous Folk
Liberal Dallas Mayor Mike Rawlings

Michael Scott Rawlings (born August 25, 1954) is an American businessman and politician who is the 61st and current Mayor of Dallas. A member of the Democratic Party, he won the 2011 Dallas mayoral election defeating former Dallas Police Chief David Kunkle. He was reelected in 2015 defeating Independent challenger attorney Marcos Ronquillo. Rawlings served as CEO of Pizza Hut from 1997 to 2002 and was also a former chief executive of the Tracy-Locke ad agency. In addition to his work in the city, Rawlings is also a prominent opponent of domestic violence, speaking at many events, including a Ring The Bell event at the United Nations alongside actor Patrick Stewart.

On August 15, 2017, Rawlings stated that Confederate statues in Dallas city parks are "monuments of propaganda" and called for a task force to decide what should be done with them. He then changed his mind and allowed the evil city council to take over and fast track the removal of all things Confederate including street names, park names and school names.

During Kyle Sims research he found many Confederate ancestors of Mike Rawlings. Some direct and many on his mothers side so we will focus on her side of the family.

Thank you Kyle Sims for your hard work. On the next pages are info on his mother showing the relation of the last names.

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish."

Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee Commander-General United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, Louisiana 1906

Remember, it is our duty to see that the true history of the South is preserved and presented to future generations.

Until we meet again, let us remember our obligations to our forefathers, who gave us the undeniable birthright of our Southern Heritage and the vision, desire and courage to see it perpetuated.
