Commanders Report

Happy New Year!

As we embark on the journey that is to be 2019, I am excited at all the things that WE were able to accomplish last year. The new year brings even more opportunities for us to grow our young camp. There was a Third Brigade meeting on Sunday January 6th to prepare for the Fort Worth Stock Show parade and subsequent weekend flagging events, I am happy to report that we had 5 camp members present. January 19th is the stock show parade as well as Confederate Heroes Day here in Texas. I will also be having an officer's call later in January to plan out the events for the upcoming year. If there are some things you'd like to see us do this year please contact me or one of the other camp officers with your ideas.

Hope to see everyone Tuesday at our January meeting at Bone Daddy's.

Confederately yours,
Craig (Hoss) Stone
Commander

2nd Lt Commanders Report

Well it looks like 2019 is going to be a busy year. I have already got a full slate of activities ahead of me.

I have been contacted by Oklahoma to come up there and speak at their Lee Jackson dinner on Jan. 26th. I am going to take Craig Stone and Jim Anderson with me so we can lay the military marker for Val Kilmer's ancestor buried at Paul's Valley, Oklahoma while on our trip.

We have also been invited to the Oklahoma Vindicators meeting earlier that day. So as you can see we are in great demand.

I have also been invited to assist in recruiting at a reenactment in Canton, Tx. on the first weekend in Feb. I didn't know they had a reenactment in Canton, so this will be a first for me.

I would like to congratulate Greg Rainone who was elected Commander of the Col. Middleton Tate Johnson Camp in Arlington, Tx. We need to support him and wish him well.

I want to offer my condolences to Frank Krawiec and his family for the loss of his mother-in-law. I never personally met her but I know she was a good woman and was always willing to help out with the grandkids.

It won't be long until the Irish Festival will be here. I believe it will be on the second weekend of March this year. Its usually the first but was changed for some reason. www.ntif.org My how time flies.

The Texas Division is going to take one more shot at getting our license plates approved. I am becoming more and more disheartened over my once beloved state of Texas.

We are going to have Jack Dyess do our program this month. This will be his first visit to our camp so lets give everyone to attend and provide him a good audience.

Lastly, we have accepted to host the 2020 Texas Division convention. I know everyone will be excited and we can show the Division how to run a convention. I look forward in assisting and working with my fellow camp members and OCR in providing a well run and fun convention.

Respectfully, Kyle Sims

1st Lt. Commander

Chaplain's Corner

My Grandmother used to say that trouble comes in threes. But who did the counting? You've probably noticed that acknowledging and investigating troubles seem to make them multiply. Right now, I'm considering our house. Cracks started appearing on the tile flooring and along the walls and in the master bath. Water was leaking into the living room from the cracks in shower floor. My patching with caulk only seemed to worsen the problem. In short, all the repair bills and rebuilding and remodeling are costing as much as the house when we purchased it about thirty years ago. Obviously, ignoring problems also makes them multiply. Ignoring the leak today leads to the living room ceiling sitting in your lap tomorrow. So, you face a dilemma: If your troubles multiply whether you examine or ignore them, what should you do? King Jehoshaphat found himself face-to-face with trouble. A huge army marched toward Jerusalem, and the scouting reports didn't hold out much hope. The problem on the horizon promised to be enormous by the time it reached the king. "Alarmed," we read, "Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the Lord" (2 Chronicles 20:3). He looked through the trouble. Faced with an overwhelming situation, the king immediately turned to Someone who is never overwhelmed. As we face trouble in our own lives, our prayer can be like Jehoshaphat's: "Lord, I know you're in charge. So, I choose to recognize this trouble as your problem, not just mine. I admit that I can't handle this situation, yet it needs to be resolved. What do you say, Lord?" Notice how God responded to this prayer of faith. He answered, but he didn't promise to help Judah win the battle. Instead, he said he'd fight for his people. Could the king have anticipated this answer? There are times in our lives as well when God's good answers surprise us. But notice also that the king still had his marching orders: God told him not to be afraid (twice), not to be discouraged (twice), to march out, to take positions and go out and face the enemy. By the time the people had completed God's instructions, the battle was over. Again, we face a dilemma. We often find ourselves a little too close to our troubles-so close that we end up wallowing in them. Or we find ourselves trying to avoid troublesgiving them the opportunity to pull a surprise attack. But God calls us to trust him, to look through our troubles and toward him.

Camp 2292 News - Remembering a Ancestor of James Turnage

The Unreconstructed Brigadier General Richard M. Gano Camp 2292 of Grapevine, TX was honored to pay respect and remember James Turnage ancestor by marriage and to obtain, hand paint and place a Confederate Cross of Honor and battle flag at Mr. George Emanuel Bushong buried at Grapevine cemetery. He enlisted in 1861 and served as a 2nd Lt. with Brigadier General Benjamin McCulloch in Co. C, 1st Mounted Rifleman. He had nothing showing he was a veteran...

Texas Division News - Children of the Confederacy Plaque at Austin Capitol

Plaque will come down. A sad sad day for Texas and ALL Texans. Traditional/Normal Americas BEWARE! - when "Inaccurate History" is used to justify monument removal by the controlled press, cowardly liberal republicans, appointed gubernatorial hacks and demonic cultural Marxists. The clock has started ticking on the removal of every plaque & monument on the Capitol complex. A very dangerous precedent has been set. They will go after the other Confederate memorials on the capitol grounds now. When the politically correct crowd can use "inaccurate history" as a litmus test... what monuments could possibly pass muster?

My Comments:

A Update from the Virginia Flaggers - VA House Bill 2377

We have been monitoring the Virginia General Assembly closely for any new monument legislation introduced, and learned today of House Bill #2377, introduced by Del. Toscano (D-Charlottesville). His bill would gut our Veterans Memorial Protection Law, allowing ultra-liberal local governments like his own to remove and destroy monuments at the whim of their extremist leaders and constituents.

You may recall that Toscano and others tried to introduce 6 bills effecting our monuments in the 2018 session. All died in committee, thanks to a robust response from citizens, and a slim Republican majority in both houses.

We will be keeping a close eye on this bill and any others that are introduced and will keep you informed of any changes and when action is needed.

In the meantime, now is a good time for everyone to contact their local, state and federal representatives, no matter where you live, and remind them that monuments are important to you.

Ask them to 1) Vote AGAINST any legislation that would allow for monument removal...and 2) Vote FOR any legislation that would protect them.

Here is a handy website that will give you a list and contact info for all of your representatives. Just enter your street address (Skip the section that asks you to sign up for emails):

FORT WORTH STOCK SHOW & RODEO

Its time for the 2019 Fort Worth Stock Show Parade with the 3rd Brigade proudly marching like our ancestors did for years and years.

Unfortunately the onerous ban against our ancestors Battle Flag is still in place here: the only "approved" Confederate flag is the First National, although the Bonnie Blue flag and Texas State flag are allowed also. The Second and Third National flags are banned also because of the Battle Flag canton.

This Parade offers us a chance to literally walk in our Confederate ancestors footsteps, since many of them marched in this same Parade later in life.

For those who do not have a uniform or do not want to march in this parade please come anyway. At least stand on the sidelines with a flag and enjoy a great parade with us.

We have a lot of stick flags to hand out in protest of them not letting us carry our two or three battle flags IN the parade.

The Fort Worth Stock Show's "All Western Parade" scheduled Saturday, January 19, 2019 at 11 a.m. in Downtown Fort Worth! ARIVE EARLY!

Kyle Sims will need some help recruiting at this event where we have always picked up members from.

We recommend that if you go to this recruiting event that you spend as little money in Dallas as possible since they have desecrated our memorial to Lee.

What is the Sons of Confederate Veterans?
 The citizen-soldiers who fought for the Confederacy personified the best qualities of America. The preservation of liberty and freedom was the motivating factor in the South's decision to fight the Second American Revolution. The tenacity with which Confederate soldiers fought underscored their belief in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. These attributes are the underpinning of our democratic society and represent the foundation on which this nation was built.

Today, the Sons of Confederate Veterans is preserving the history and legacy of these heroes, so future generations can understand the motives that animated the Southern Cause.

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans, and the oldest hereditary organization for male descendants of Confederate soldiers. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved.
