Commanders Report

Greetings Fellow Compatriots,

It is getting closer to our Texas Division Reunion in Waco. If you plan on going visit our Division Website for information and a discount on rooms at the Hilton and a discount package for the events. We've just completed our 2nd dose of ModeRNA, and it feels so good to walk around without a mask. We are honored to have at our meeting Mr. Curt Locklear. Curt is a renown historian, guitar picker, banjo player, author, and storyteller. Let us have a great turn out for his presentation. So far, I have only received 3 responses regarding Division's request for Emails to State Representatives. I have no current information that HB 1186 has been referred out-of committee. The session is supposed to end the last of May; but it looks like it may go longer but I'll keep the Camp posted

Deo Vindice, Initum sapientiae tumor Domini

Jack B.

Camp Commander and Chaplain

1st Lt Commanders Report

Greetings members and friends

Hope everyone is doing well. Not much to say other than things are looking up with life getting back to normal. Hope everybody can make it to the meeting on Tuesday the 20th.

God Bless Texas and God Save The South!
Deo Vindice

Confederately,
Billy G.
1st Lt. Commander

Chaplain's Corner

*Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.
For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow.*

-Ecclesiastes 4: 9-10a

One of the heroes of the Lord of the Rings trilogy is Frodo Baggins. Even though Frodo is a hobbit, or halfling (about half the height of a man), he is given a quest that even the bravest and strongest man would not want to take the One Ring to the land of Mordor, which is ruled by the evil Lord Sauron, and destroy the Ring in the fires of Mount Doom.

Initially, Frodo is accompanied on his quest by the Fellowship of the Ring, an allegiance of two men, a dwarf, an elf, a wizard, and four hobbits, including Frodo. When the Fellowship is broken by an enemy attack, Frodo ends up with just one companion: friend and fellow hobbit, Samwise Gamgee. As Frodo and Sam near Mordor, Sam becomes philosophical about their quest and wonders if Frodo will ever be put into songs or tales. He suggests that "Frodo and the Ring" will be one of everyone's favorite stories, starring "the most famousest of hobbits."

Frodo's words prove prophetic. Sam proves himself to be incredibly brave, and because he protects and even rescues Frodo, the quest ultimately ends in success. Two have fared better than one could. Their toil and sacrifice bring a great reward to everyone in Middle Earth.

When Jesus sent out his twelve disciples (see Mark 6), he sent them in pairs. When Jesus sent out seventy-two other disciples (see Luke 10), he sent them in pairs. Even when Jesus needed a donkey on which to ride into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, he sent a pair of disciples. Every step of the way, Jesus taught his followers that two are better than one...even if they are never put into songs or tales.

Why is it that we so often to we tend to "go it alone" instead of asking for a partner? SCV to me is a relationship built on a commonality. Our Division and our Camp have the same commonality. When you elected me as the Commander, ya'll handed me the reins and said go for it. Well, what a learning curve. Luckily over the last five years I tried to develop walking partners, camp members and those in other camps that have strengths where I have weaknesses. I have always believed that our Heavenly Father places people in our lives for a reason. Who in our Camp is your walking partner?

Father, open my eyes to the fact that you have placed people in my life for a reason. Do not let me walk this life alone.

Deo Vindice, Initium sapientiae timor Domini
Jack H. Bowen, Commander-Chaplain

State News Cont. - Texas Division Convention

The 2021 Texas Division Convention in Waco is quickly approaching. The dates are May 28-30, and the Waco Camp says only about ten people have registered so far. The Lee Lockwood Library has already hosted three other conventions since Christmas, so COVID is not a major concern. You can access information about the Convention and host hotel and menu are on the Texas Division website(link below). Also, remember that registration is ongoing, and that rates are cheaper if you register NOW instead of waiting.

IN THE OLD DOMINION

More than a dozen gravestones and memorials were toppled and spray-painted in Hollywood Cemetery on Saturday, causing more than $200,000 in damage, according to the Richmond police, who are "investigating" the vandalism.

IN THE OLD LINE STATE

The House of Delegates voted 94-38 to do away with the State Song, Maryland My Maryland with mostly Democrats in favor of the repeal and mostly Republicans opposed. A similar bill is soon coming up for vote in the Senate.

Some have asked Governor Larry Hogan if he will sign or veto the bill upon arrival. he refuses to answer. Speculation is that he will sign.

ALSO IN MARYLAND

William Thompson Walters, founder of the Baltimore art collection that bears his name campaigned for the Confederate cause along with his son Henry. Both were praised as visionary philanthropists who developed and bequeathed the world-class art collection that's among the city's crown jewels.

Research conducted by the Walters Art Museum made public Monday revealed William Walters advocated for the Confederacy lobbying for a secessionist party ticket to represent Baltimore in the state legislature.

Henry Walters was a teenager during the War, but as an adult in 1909 he donated funds to erect a statue in North Carolina honoring George Davis, former attorney general for the Confederate states. The city of Wilmington removed the monument last year.

IN THE GREAT WHITE NORTH

The hate crimes unit of the Calgary Police Service is investigating after a Confederate Flag was spotted flying on a pole in Reader Rock Garden on Tuesday. A person reported it to police before 7 p.m.

Someone had taken the Confederate Flag down by the time officers arrived, and police recovered it from the garbage.

Police said the incident "is being taken very seriously."

VA Flagger Update

On Saturday, April 3rd, The Rt.360 Charlotte Defenders Roadside Memorial Battle Flag was raised in a private ceremony, on private property, to the glory of God, in memory of all Confederate soldiers, and in honor of all of the men of Charlotte County who fought in the War Between the States! This was a joint project with the Charlotte County Grays, SCV Camp #1964, who will serve as Guardians of the Flags for the site moving forward. Thank you, gentlemen, for your hard work and dedication in getting this project completed.

We counted 90+ in attendance, and were so thankful to all who came out to help us celebrate, honor, and remember. Special thanks to the 1st Corps Color Guard under Commander Joe Wright who served as our color guard, High Bridge Camp # 1581 and Armistead-Hill-Goode Camp # 749 for assisting the Charlotte Grays with the honor guard, ,Pipemajor David Hinton.

After greetings from representatives of the UDC, SCV, and the OCR, SCV Chaplain-In-Chief Rev. Dr. Herman White delivered stirring remarks... and the 12' x 12' ANV battle flag was raised to the Glory of God and in honor and memory of the Confederate soldiers of Charlotte County, Virginia.

This was the 33rd Roadside Memorial Battle Flag the VA Flaggers have raised across the Commonwealth since September of 2013

Just down the road a bit, in Rockbridge County, Site #34 was dedicated on Saturday April 17th, also at 11:00 AM.

This flag site was a joint project with the Virginia Mechanized Cavalry, 10th Platoon, 2nd Bn, Co A. These gentlemen will take over as guardians of the flag site and have already started working on improvements, with more to come.

Thanks to the hard work and commitment of hundreds of volunteers, and the generosity of our supporters. That was two large flags up in the same month.

All glory to God. All honor to the Confederate soldier.

From occupied Virginia,

Susan Lee

SLRC Dallas Monument Cases Update

BREAKING: Texas 5th Court of Appeal dissolved the Temporary Injunction that protected Pioneer Cemetery Confederate War Memorial

Appeal planned. City claims it has no "current" plans to disturb the storage of the monument. Can we trust the City?

We are up to our elbows in Monument work in Dallas Texas on 3 Monument cases one on the Lee Monument stolen & sold out of Lee Park and all 3 challenging the City of Dallas on its dirty and illegal schemes to get rid of the Pioneer Cemetery Confederate war Memorial. Two cases - Return Lee to Lee Park and Carter v Dallas are being briefed for the Texas Supreme Court - both Petitions for Review are due by the end of the month. Return Lee challenges the flouting of Texas State Law and Carter challenges Dallas ignoring state law and its own ordinances & procedures in the dirty process through 2 City commissions to take down the Monument. The third case still in a Dallas District Court presided over by the most left leaning radical judge in Texas challenges Dallas illegally taking down the Pioneer Cemetery Confederate war Memorial without legally required valid Certificate of Demolition. Apparently under current city thinking - following laws, rules & ordinances is only for peasants - not Royal City bureaucrats and politicians.

Briefing 2 cases for the Texas Supreme Court is very expensive - but what choice do we the People have? We must put what pressure we can, in the streets, city hall & the courts, on the tyrants and enlist our friends & allies to do the same. We are pursuing other avenues as well - more later. Stay with us & support us. And get all your fence sitting friends, upset about what happened in NOV 2020, working to right the balance. the time is NOW!

Meditations on a Couple of Old Postcards

I saw a pile of household goods on the side of the road a couple of days ago, as I was picking up a friend to take him to the store. It was a blighting image that I gazed on with disdain. I asked him what that was, and he said his neighbor was cleaning the house, and it was there for the taking. I am an artist and therefore not proud, a prospector at heart. I got out and my eyes immediately fell on two postcards. One was of a beautiful oil portrait of Gen. Lee. The other a picture of the statue of Marse Robert in the Virginia State Capital. They were dated 1962, proud symbols of Old Dominion heritage and honor for a hundred years. I snatched them up from the pile like a sacred banner that had been allowed to touch the ground. One man's trash is another man's treasure.

It is sad to see that today the Southern white middle class will throw out what was sacred only a couple of years ago for fear of harboring signs of political incorrectness or because they have become satiated by the Kool-Aid of the Maoist Cultural Revolution which has engulfed our land worse than any plague ever could. The current generation of humanity in America has become a genetic hybrid fusing the jellyfish with the sheep-spineless followers of little character and no direction, floating about, forgetting the past and unable to see into the darkness sucking them into the future.

How we have cascaded over the falls from the days when our leaders had real backbones and thought for themselves and were willing to stand up for what they believed in. We as a society have fallen a long way. Our nation is ready for the plucking. But more likely we will quickly fall in on ourselves from internal entropy and division and be sucked into the void of eons of man's historical ambitions, aspirations, failures, and demise. Either way, the status quos can not last much longer. Our nation has already passed through the effervescent identity of our pre-pubescent launch onto the world stage. We have flexed our muscles and shown our adolescent prowess, and then churned to a stop contemplating in our middle age, reposed and questioning our idealism and looking at our accomplishments with disparagement. But now we have gone too far, and we turn in on ourselves listening to false tales and false idols. We are standing at the fulcrum of a teeter-totter wondering what it's all about, vulnerable in our flabbiness and our self-depreciation and insecurity. America is suffering a mid-life crisis.

The Vandals are at the gates and whisperers of appeasement and conciliation are hiding their symbols and ready to take up the religion of those storming the walls. The lost true believers await the inevitable blindfolds they will soon be offered so that the light of liberty in their eyes will not be seen by the new masters of their fate and cause them to hesitate.

Cliff Page is a native of Charleston, South Carolina, with roots that run deep, and precede the Revolution, but spread from the red clay of the mountains to the sandy loam and swamps of the low country. As an artist, he was Sculptor in Residence at the Saint-Gaudens National Site in Cornish NH in 2015. He holds degrees from Old Dominion and East Carolina Universities. Four years ago, he was a candidate for Mayor of Portsmouth, Virginia, where he lives and maintains his studio and is running again for this high office. For the last five years, he has stopped his own work as a sculptor and directed his efforts to preserve and protect Southern monuments and memorials honoring our Confederate Veterans and the brave heroes of Dixie.

Sons of Confederate Veterans
 "DEFENDING THEIR HONOR SINCE 1896"
 www.scv.org ★ 1-800-MySouth

What is the Sons of Confederate Veterans?
 The citizen-soldiers who fought for the Confederacy personified the best qualities of America. The preservation of liberty and freedom was the motivating factor in the South's decision to fight the Second American Revolution. The tenacity with which Confederate soldiers fought underscored their belief in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. These attributes are the underpinning of our democratic society and represent the foundation on which this nation was built.

Today, the Sons of Confederate Veterans is preserving the history and legacy of these heroes, so future generations can understand the motives that animated the Southern Cause.

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans, and the oldest hereditary organization for male descendants of Confederate soldiers. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved.

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

“To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.”

Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee Commander-General United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, Louisiana 1906

Remember, it is our duty to see that the true history of the South is preserved and presented to future generations.

Until we meet again, let us remember our obligations to our forefathers, who gave us the undeniable birthright of our Southern Heritage and the vision, desire and courage to see it perpetuated.
