Commanders Report

Greeting fellow Compatriots. Our monthly meeting will again be held at Chill in Grapevine this Tuesday, the 16th. As usual we would like everyone to arrive at 6 PM for some cool refreshments, tasty food and fellowship and we will be treated to a presentation on General or Prince Camille De Polignac by Kyle Sims. The dog days of Summer have slowed down our activities; however, we will be getting a report from the National Convention from Allen, Kyle, and Jim. I will be presenting possible dates for upcoming fall activities that include the cleaning of General Gano’s burial site in Dallas, the Mid Cities Gun Show in November and in December our rescheduled Trash Clean Up.

1st Lt Commanders Report

Greetings members and friends,

Hope everyone is blessed and staying hydrated outside or cool inside. Another National reunion is behind us and I hear we had quite few Texans there.

Billy Goar and I made a Texas Nationalist Movement meeting in Decatur late last month. Things are getting interesting as people are getting fed up with this union.

I want to make the mid cities gun show in November along with Commander Jack, we want to set up recruiting booths again at these shows. We are looking for guest speakers, so if you know of anyone please let me know. We still need speakers for September, October and November.

We hope to see yall at the meeting this coming Tuesday the 16th. Come listen to a great program from Kyle Sims and eat some great food.

God Bless Texas and Dixie! God Save The South! Deo Vindice

Sons of Confederate Veterans Is Not a Spectator Sport

Imagine yourself sitting in the football stadium of a major university on an autumn Saturday afternoon. Depending on where you are, there could be up to 100,000 people sitting all around you. Both you and they bought tickets and are in the stadium for one reason only-to watch the game and cheer for your favorite team.

Many of them will wear their team's colors, cheer, and spend time second-guess coaches, referees, and players. If they were down on the field wearing full football gear, they would view everything that is happening from a unique perspective. But they did not come to play. They came for one purpose only-to be spectators.

They would not dare go down from the stands and out onto the playing field. First of all, they are a long way from being in the kind of physical condition required to play a rough contact sport. If they ran out on the field while the game was going on, they would be promptly ushered out of the stadium by policemen. They are in the stands where they are supposed to be because they are spectators, not players.

Spectators are important to a football team. Their enthusiastic cheering encourages the players. The money they spend buying tickets helps in some ways to pay the bills for the team. Following the game they may sometimes take pictures of individual players who participated in the game, but that is all they can do. They are spectators.

Having said that, let me draw your attention to another place where you will find lots of spectators-in SCV Camps. Pick any day of the week on a monthly calendar. People come in, exchange greetings to one another, take their seat, enjoy a meal, listen to a guest speaker (if one is available), sing Dixie, close with a prayer, and after several hours, they get up and go home. There may be some cheering if Walter or Donnie Kennedy is speaking!

But wait. Where is the team, the players? The players who participate in The Charge given to us by General Stephen D. Lee. They are at each Camp meeting. To be involved; I mean really involved could be compared to a football team in the training room. The training room is where plans are made for the game which can only take place out on the playing field. Just as football players leave the training room and go out where the game is played, we owe it to our brave ancestors and to their heritage to vindicate their good name. We cannot do those two things effectively if we are spectators only.

Spectators at a football game are not allowed to go out on the field of play. However, we as a member of Sons of Confederate Veterans are both allowed and encouraged to leave our seats at the dining room table and go out on the playing field-which is the community around us. In fact, Vindication is not a spectator sport.

We, as Sons of Confederate Veterans have a tie to at least one Confederate soldier who bravely stood against tyranny, here is the one question above all others you should ask yourself: "Am I in the game, or am I just a spectator?"

Texas News - Vandalized Memorial at Alamo

The Alamo Cenotaph was vandalized again on Aug 3, 2022. This time the tag name Szzleepy, most likely a wannabe gangster, was written in red magic marker. The graffiti was successfully removed Wednesday afternoon and it does not appear to have done permanent damage like the spray did in 2020. The criminal also tagged the stairs across the street in front of the Federal Building. As of today, SAPD has not arrested anyone, and they have not announced any suspects.

90% of Texans that had no clue this even happened. The media didn't cover it (for the exception of 1 local reporter), so it's like it never happened. Right? Since this incident happened This Is Texas Freedom Force (who previously teamed up with the Texas Division) has beefed up surveillance on the Alamo & the Cenotaph. TITFF Vice President Ramon Garza was first on scene. Ramon enlisted some help and started digging into this issue and compiling info, what we are learning is disturbing. Join TITFF for "Operation Pin The Tail On The Donkey" Wednesday August 17th, in San Antonio, Tx (City Hall), 3:30pm. If you plan to attend the event Wed at San Antonio City Hall, we will have a TITFF zoom meeting this Monday at 6pm where we can catch everyone up to speed and answer any questions you may have. Here's the info for the zoom meeting.

National News - 2022 National Reunion in Georgia

Compatriots,

Teresa and I have just returned from the annual SCV Reunion in Cartersville, Georgia, held from 19 - 23 July. It was a busy week. The Georgia Division did an outstanding job preparing for and executing a great program from start to finish.

Over that week, there were numerous Battlefield Tours (Chickamauga, Ringgold Gap, Resaca, and Kennesaw) along with programs/dinners at the Booth Art Museum, a UDC "Tea" and Gone with the Wind Tour, the Savoy Antique Car Museum, the Atlanta History Center and Battle of Atlanta Cyclorama topped off with the Grand Ball on Saturday night featuring a Debutante Ceremony and the swearing-in of our new Commander-in-Chief, Jason Boshers of Tennessee (formerly the Lt Commander-in-Chief) and new Lieutenant Commander, Donnie Kennedy (The South Was Right!) of Louisiana (formerly Chief of Heritage Defense). I believe that both of these men will do superior service to the organization.

If anything, there was too much to do, but the food was great and the atmosphere cordial. There were also several memorial services conducted at the many Confederate cemeteries in the area and an entertaining Oratory "Contest" that night.

I was proud to carry the Camp Colors into the Opening Ceremony and represent the Camp in the mostly-gentlemanly Business Sessions on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Proposed Constitutional Amendments 1-8 regarding the creation, duties, etc., of Press Officers from the Camp level to IHQ were all defeated. Amendment 9 - adding additional historical language to the Preamble of the SCV Constitution - was adopted. Amendments 10 - adding additional language to Article 2, Section 4 (Organization Finances, 501 (c)(3), and IRS matters) and Amendment 11 granting "Real" Grandsons exemption from dues were both defeated. Amendment 12 authorizing the Commander-in-Chief to serve two consecutive terms had to go to a "ballot" vote where it failed for lack of a 2/3 majority. There were also 4 Proposed Amendments to the SCV Standing Orders. Amendments 1-3 all involved the defeated proposals regarding Press Officers including the formation of a Press Committee and permitting the GEC to hire a PR "Professional" . 1 and 2 were defeated and 3 was withdrawn. Amendment 4 would create a Museum Policy Committee that would oversee the operations of the National Confederate Museum at Elm Springs. It was adopted.

I also attended the IHQ Awards Luncheon on Friday. The Texas Division came away with a large box of individual National Awards and recognition for formation of the Most New Camps. I believe that we can have even more individual awards if we look more closely at the IHQ Awards Manual and nominate our people who meet the Award criteria - not too hard for many of them.

I was happy to see Justin Pederson with his family plus Jim Pederson and our friends in the California Division. In all, I believe there were about 27 Texas Compatriots in attendance.

Next year's National Reunion will be at the Arlington Resort and Spa in Little Rock, Arkansas, 19 -22 July.

Regards,
Shelby K. Little
Chief of Staff
Texas Division

Lots of interesting things happened: State Reunion/Annual Meeting, National Reunion for SCV, and wonderful Confederate monuments and places visited by our members.

Bit of History: our namesake, Rose Greenhow left this note for her daughter, Little Rose, which was recovered after Rose drowned in October 1864.

"You have shared the hardships and indignity of my prison life, my darling; And suffered all that evil which a vulgar despotism could inflict. Let the memory of that period never pass from your mind; Else you may be inclined to forget how merciful Providence has been in seizing us from such a people."

Virginia Flagger Update

Farmville Flag Update: Yesterday, our landowner was served with official notice that Prince Edward County has filed an appeal of the Board of Zoning Appeal's decision to the Circuit Court. This after the Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to do so in a called meeting on July 15th.

Even though the law is clearly on our side, and the board of zoning appeals ruled in our favor, the Board of Supervisors has voted to continue its attempts to have the memorial flag removed AT ALL COSTS. Since they have unlimited taxpayer resources, they must assume that we would eventually give up due to the tremendous time and expense involved each and every time they appeal. THEY ARE MISTAKEN.

We feel this case is crucial to set precedent in protecting landowner rights in the Commonwealth and we intend to follow through until the last appeal and final verdict guarantees that this flag WILL NOT COME DOWN.

We are meeting with our attorney this week to work out details for payment for the balance of the original fees, and estimates for next steps. We will keep you all posted as more information is available.

MANY, MANY thanks to each of you who have stepped up to support our efforts in this case! We are truly overwhelmed by the outpouring of support.

If you would like to help with the ongoing legal expenses, Please make checks payable to "Virginia Flaggers" and mail to PO Box 1427, Amherst, VA 24521, Note: High Bridge Memorial Flag Legal Fund

You will recall that we reported earlier that we had kicked off "Operation Flags Across Farmville" with the installation of several new 19'6" flag poles and battle flags in and around the community. This after the Prince Edward County Board of Supervisors passed knee jerk amendments to their existing code, basically prohibiting any flag pole over 20' without special zoning exceptions, etc...

Just a few days after the installations, THOSE LANDOWNERS received notices of violation from Prince Edward County! We have heard from many citizens how amazing it is that they were able to move so fast in action against a couple of 19'6" flag poles on agricultural property, while citizens wait months or movement on other zoning/planning/building issues.

In any case, apparently the zoning board has now declared that ANY size flag pole is now a "structure" and a "zoning permit" must be obtained before construction. We are working with all of the landowners to get their "zoning permits" filed and approved to get them in compliance before 30 days pass, at which time they face fines and imprisonment.

IN THE MEANTIME, word of this nonsense spread quickly, and we are looking at least half dozen sites for additional flags...coming soon!

For Christ and the Confederacy!

The Confederate Legion

JOIN THE CONFEDERATE LEGION

Membership in the Legion supports the Southern Victory Campaign.

Dues and donations are used almost exclusively for a two-prong counter-attack that we call the Southern Victory Campaign. It's led by the Heritage operations Committee of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Objectives include:

Rebuilding public support for the same principles of liberty that America's founding fathers believed in.

Rebuilding respect for the Confederate States of America that preferred to leave the Union rather than abandon the principles of liberty as the Northern states were doing under Leftist influences of the day.

Direct action by the SCV is one prong of the offensive. The second prong includes you and your organization.

It's not necessary to be a member or camp of the SCV to participate in the campaign.

We depend on God and you for the victory we seek.

Supreme Court of Texas Decision to Hear Dallas Monument Appeal Soon?

As we go to press the People's Republic of Dallas is due on 05 AUG to file a response to our Petition for Review filed in Robinson v Dallas. They are not required to file a response. Last summer Dallas removed the 120 year old Pioneer Cemetery Confederate War Memorial without a valid city-issued Certificate of Demolition as required by a Dallas City ordinance. In seeking a remand of the case back to the Dallas County District Court, the good guys ask the question: Must the City of Dallas follow its OWN ordinances, rules & procedures, or is the law only enforced against us peasants?"

We hope this case is ripe for an all-Republican Texas Supreme Court to decide! The Court will not rule against Dallas without first requiring the city to respond to our Petition for Review. Please Pray for justice in this case and support SLRC!

You Are the First Brigade

"You Are the First Brigade"

Saying farewell is not easy. I have been a fan of the movies Gettysburg and Gods and Generals and last week I watched God and Generals. I was impressed by Lang's portrayal of Gen. Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson and Lang's ability as an actor and how he took his role seriously with dialog and delivery done to perfection.

We often wonder how much liberty Hollywood takes with the script and were General Jackson's actual farewell speech, as delivered by Lang, Jackson's actual words? The following is the actual words given to his Stonewall Brigade on November 8, 1861.

"Officers and men of the First Brigade. I am not here to make a speech but simply to say farewell. I first met you at Harper's Ferry in the commencement of the war, and I cannot take leave of you without giving expression to my admiration of your conduct from that day to this, whether on the march, in the bivouac, the tented field, or on the bloody plains of Manassas, where you gained the well-deserved reputation of having decided the fate of the battle.

Throughout the broad extent of country over which you have marched, by your respect for the rights and property of citizens, you have shown that you were soldiers not only to defend, but able and willing both to defend and protect. You have already gained a brilliant and deservedly high reputation, throughout the army and the whole Confederacy, and I trust in the future by your own deeds on the field, and by the assistance of the same Kind Providence who has heretofore favored our cause that you will gain more victories and add additional luster to the reputation you now enjoy. You have already gained a proud position in the history of this our second War of Independence. I shall look with great anxiety to your future movements, and I trust whenever I shall hear of the First Brigade on the field of battle it will be of still nobler deeds achieved and higher reputation won.

In the army of the Shenandoah, you were the First Brigade; in the army of the Potomac, you were the First Brigade; in the second corps of this army, you were the First Brigade; you are the First Brigade in the affections of your General; and I hope by your future deeds and bearing you will be handed down to posterity as the First Brigade in our second War of Independence.

Farewell!"

I can imagine that it is not easy to say your good-byes, especially among military comrades. Even if it is a promotion or better opportunities, it is not easy.

In the late autumn of 1861, General Thomas J. Jackson (nicknamed "Stonewall") was transferred from command of the First Virginia Brigade to command of the Shenandoah Valley District with headquarters in the town of Winchester, Virginia. It was definitely a good "promotion" for the general, but he was forced to leave behind his original command.

The First Brigade was Jackson's. He had trained them from undisciplined volunteers into a fighting unit that ad helped win the Battle of the First Manassas. He had continued their "school of the soldier" in the late summer and autumn. They had shared the sobriquet "Stonewall".

Jackson wasn't known for making speeches, but when he left to go to the Valley, he made a brief farewell address to his brigade. It was transcribed by Henry Kyd Douglas and preserved. After the Address, the Confederate brigade cheered wildly, and Jackson rode along the reviewing lines The general later commented that the cheering was like "the sweetest music."

What is the Sons of Confederate Veterans?
 The citizen-soldiers who fought for the Confederacy personified the best qualities of America. The preservation of liberty and freedom was the motivating factor in the South's decision to fight the Second American Revolution. The tenacity with which Confederate soldiers fought underscored their belief in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. These attributes are the underpinning of our democratic society and represent the foundation on which this nation was built.

Today, the Sons of Confederate Veterans is preserving the history and legacy of these heroes, so future generations can understand the motives that animated the Southern Cause.

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans, and the oldest hereditary organization for male descendants of Confederate soldiers. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved.

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish."

Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee Commander-General United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, Louisiana 1906

Remember, it is our duty to see that the true history of the South is preserved and presented to future generations.

Until we meet again, let us remember our obligations to our forefathers, who gave us the undeniable birthright of our Southern Heritage and the vision, desire and courage to see it perpetuated.
