Commanders Report

Hello Compatriots!

After a two month hiatus, I’ve decided to go ahead and call a meeting at our old haunting grounds at Chills in Grapevine for Tuesday, February 20th starting at 6 PM for dinner and 7 PM for the meeting. In lieu of a speaker I would like to report on what I learned this past weekend.

This past Saturday, I attended a Texas division sponsored seminar in Waco on how to defend our heritage. There’s a lot of good information that was presented, What I would like to do is, in lieu of a speaker, I’d like to talk about some of the main points we covered during the seminar with you during our meeting, I would also like to also show a video made in defense of the Confederate Monument in Georgetown. My presentation will just cover the highlights of what was presented.

Please check Frank’s calendar in this newsletter for upcoming events at the local, state, and national level. For instance, on Saturday, February 24th, at 12 pm there is a 3rd Brigade Meeting at the Old Pancake House in Fort Worth. I hope most of you can make it!

For God, Texas, and the South,

Sean Partee,

Commander

Gano Camp 2292

1st Lt Commanders Report

Ladies and gentlemen of the OCR and SCV and our friends we WILL have a normal camp meeting this Tuesday at our normal location CHILL in Grapevine.

It is with a sad heart that I must tell you that Michael Patterson passed away Thursday at 2:20 pm. He had lapsed into a comma like state the Friday before and was moved to a hospice facility near their home in Siloam Springs. Marilyn was with him the afternoon when he passed. Mike had asked for his body to be donated to science so it will be a while before the cremated remains are returned to Marilyn. She has indicated that she plans on a memorial service in the Colleyville area at that time. He will be buried in the Parker Cemetery on Hwy 121 where his daughter, and grandparents are buried. Mike personally helped me so many times getting grave stones for Confederate Veteran's for graves here in Grapevine and in my home town of Justin in 2015 and 2016. I enjoyed talking to him and hearing the stories of his research. He was such a valuable commodity to the North Texas Area with his veterans grave research program.

Below is the last marker I picked up from Mike and installed in late 2016. A Texan, David H. Cate of the Confederate States Army. Me and Arnold Huskins installed this one and flagged it by ourselves on a bitter cold winter day.

Hope to see yall at a future event because I will not be able to make this camp meeting in February. Me and the wife already paid for a event we booked long ago for this Tuesday. I will also be at a private carbine training class the day of the 3rd Brigade meeting unfortunately. So glad Jack is able to submit content for the newsletter again. We missed him. Don't forget Texas Secession day is Feb 1st.

*They lifted p their voices and said,
"Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"*

Luke 17-13

If you grew up decades ago in the southern United States you likely remember hearing the expression "Lord, have mercy!" whenever life took a turn for the worse. It was a familiar expression the Deep South because the South is synonymous with the Bible Belt, and "Lord, have mercy!" is a biblical expression.

"Have mercy" occurs forth-six times I Scripture, twelve times in Psalms alone—the book in which authors were often found imploring God for relief or help. On several occasions. Jesus was called upon to "have mercy" by those in need. And He responded by granting healing or deliverance as required.

What is mercy? It is not getting what we deserve. Being sinners, we deserve all manners of judgement. So, when we feel we're in the middle of a judgement of circumstances, we call out to God to 'have mercy" and take the bad situation away. By grace, God often does—giving us something (in this case, relief) that we don't deserve. Grace and mercy ae both sides of God's love.

Find someone this week to show mercy to. If someone does something wrong and thus deserves judgement, extend mercy instead.

The name Jehovah carries majesty in it,
The name Father carries mercy in it.

National News - Stone Mountain Memorial Park

The Georgia Division needs your help.

Stone Mountain Memorial Park began as a Memorial to the Confederacy May 1924 when the bust of General Robert E. Lee was revealed. The 1925 Stone Mountain coin has Memorial to the Valor of the Soldier of the South struck on the back with the equestrian figures of Generals Lee and Jackson on the front.

We have two issues. The first issue is the woke Democrats in the Georgia State legislature have filed House Bill 794 that removes Stone Mountain Memorial Park as a Memorial to the Confederacy. If this legislation passes, it opens the door for changing the names of everything currently named for our beloved Confederate Heroes in and around Stone Mountain Memorial Park. Their ultimate goal will be to blast away the carving.

The second issue is Georgia's Governor Brian Kemp is allowing the governing authority, Stone Mountain Memorial Association (SMMA), to relocate the Memorial Flag Terrace to an area where it will never be seen, and they are creating woke museum exhibits in Memorial Hall that dishonors our Confederate Veterans.

What can we do now? Below are (2) two links which will send a prepared message to Georgia's Speaker of the House and the Georgia Governor. Please take the time to complete this form using your name and address. If you wish to alter any of the statement, please be courteous and polite. Sign it and click Submit.

SLRC UPDATE - Updates

Southern Legal Resource Center

The evil human face of The Reconciliation Memorial removal will be speaking in Jacksonville, FL on Tuesday. A Naming commission member, retired Brigadier General and West Point "history" instructor, Ty Seidule has a pathological hatred of General Robert E. Lee as becomes clear when you read his unreadable tome: "Robert E. Lee & Me." Anyone want to protest this Monster?

Save Southern Heritage Appeal Initial Briefing Schedule Set

Preliminary appeal issues have been set to be filed by 11 MAR after which we will receive a formal briefing schedule for the Appellants

(that's us) initial brief on the issues, the most important of which is "judicial review" of the legislative & executive branches, which the Judge in our case said she didn't have the power or authority to review.

I will be traveling to Fayetteville this weekend to call the dance of the Fayetteville Arsenal Camp Lee-Jackson Ball and talk on Arlington

The Alabama Senate is considering a dangerous bill to make display of a Confederate flag on public property a crime - yes a crime!

Apparently still in committee but we need Alabama Compatriots to investigate and swing into action. Light up the telephone switchboard at the Capitol boys & girls!

SLRC UPDATE Cont. - TO NORMAL AMERICA: WHAT'S AT STAKE IN ARLINGTON

Will Constitutional Checks and Balances be a Victim of the Congressional Naming Commission?

The Arlington National Cemetery Reconciliation Memorial Removal May Set a Precedent for Unfettered Authority for Agency Action Exempt from Judicial Review A status update on the Litigation with Defend Arlington and Sec. Defense Lloyd Austin Background -

In the aftermath of the death of George Floyd, marxist Senator Elizabeth Warren (and my legal research professor in Law School) exploited the opportunity to cancel a large and significant part of American History by adding a provision to the FY2021 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) which established a "Naming Commission" directed to scour military assets having any link to the southern ("Confederate") side in the American Civil War. The legislation required public input and excluded grave markers. It did not preclude judicial review.

The Commission, in its final report, included a one hundred year old, iconic memorial marking 400+ graves at Arlington National Cemetery, including the grave of the Confederate veteran Artist and the memorial's creator, Moses Ezekiel (VMI Class of 1865). The memorial became (and was) Ezekiel's headstone and final resting place after he died during WWI. The celebrated memorial was the brainchild of Union War Veteran and US President William McKinley, and the project was supported by 3 other Presidents who were involved in different ways (Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft and Woodrow Wilson).

Upon receiving the recommendations, rather than reviewing them for compliance with the NDAA, Biden regime Secretary of Defense, Lloyd Austin, chose instead to blindly accept all recommendations and ordered the use of existing military resources to implement the recommendations, including the removal of the memorial from the Nation's preeminent military cemetery. The Secretary argued he had NO discretion not to implement the Naming Commission's recommendations and NO obligation to determine whether the recommendations were consistent with the law.

Litigation – An assemblage of historic preservation groups, including three Ezekiel descendants, and descendants of other veterans buried around the Memorial and in other areas of Arlington filed suit against the Department of Defense (DOD) in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Plaintiffs asserted that the Commission's recommendation was inconsistent with Congress' statutory mandates and that the DOD Secretary exceeded his authority when he ordered use of existing military resources to implement legally deficient recommendations. DOD, in its Motion To Dismiss, argued the Secretary's action was non-discretionary, the Secretary had no authority NOT to implement the Naming Commission recommendations and NO obligation to ensure the recommendations were consistent with the law.

Judge Beryl Howell, D.C. Dist. Ct., issued an Order directing the parties to brief the issues of whether DOD's brief claiming that the Secretary had no discretion not to remove the Memorial, ran afoul of the Abbott Labs line of cases in favor of the presumption of reviewability. Notwithstanding, in issuing her Opinion, Judge Howell decided to "Fall on her sword" for the regime and failed to address the Abbott Labs caselaw we cited establishing that agency actions are reviewable unless Congress explicitly states that they are unreviewable and Congress did not do that here.

The Court adopted DOD's argument that DOD's approval was a reviewable final agency action, however, since the Secretary could ONLY implement the decision his action was not arbitrary. We think this opinion is seriously flawed and establishes a very dangerous precedent where Congress can direct the executive branch to establish a Commission which shall undertake specific tasks and require full implementation – without regard for whether the recommendations are consistent with the statute and with NO review by the Courts.

What is At Risk? Checks and balances between the three branches of the federal government.! To illustrate, suppose a Congressional Commission recommended removing the White House from Pennsylvania Avenue because it met the Commission's criteria for removal. Under Judge Howell's opinion, the relevant agency head would have no discretion not to implement and there would be absolutely no recourse to the courts to stop it. If this case stands, it will allow Congress to move ahead with any action, delegate it to a Commission, and no one would ever be able to challenge it in court.

This is the work of marxists and compliant politicians within our government–They will not stop, they will not give up, and monuments that normal America cares about WILL be next! Which is why we must fight on and not give up.

We are now appealing Judge Howell's decision to the DC Circuit Court of Appeals. We have until 11 MAR to finish our preliminary Appeal filings and after that we will receive a briefing schedule from the Court. Of concern is the disposition of the pieces of the removed Reconciliation Memorial which will be reported to the Arlington National Cemetery Committee on 29 FEB. We may need to act quickly!

Contact your congressional delegation at: www.defendarlington.org Follow up with a call: 202-224-3121 tell your congress critter that Congress needs to restore the Reconciliation Memorial before November, so you don't "forget" to vote to re-elect them.
