I'll bet there are some of ya'll that have never heard of Leonard Bernstein. "Lenny" as his friends called him was the conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra for many years, as well as composer of the music for West Side Story, and the Broadway musical Candide. In the early '60s Bernstein did a prime-time broadcast on NBC called Young Peoples' Concerts, which I never missed. I remember someone asking him once which instrument was the most difficult to play. He thought for a moment and said, "The second fiddle. I can get plenty of first violinists, but to find someone who can play the second fiddle with enthusiasm-that's a problem. And if we have no second fiddle, we have no harmony.

It was a very keen observation about human nature, but the truth is that all of us must play second fiddle part of the time-in our SCV Camp, at home, in church, and out in the big world where we work and play. Few people have a leading role, and to say this is not to speak disparagingly of supporting roles or bit parts. In a movie it takes all the actors to make the play complete. If all you saw in the Batman or Superman movies was Commissioner Gordon, Alfred, or Lois Lane, the plot would be very dull indeed.

When King Saul in ancient Israel came back into Jerusalem following a huge victory, he was met by a group of young girls who were singing, "Saul has slain his thousands!" I'm sure those words were met with tremendous approval by Saul, and he probably was thinking to himself, "I've got to have that song written down and preserved forever." But the stanza continued, "Saul has killed his thousands...BUT DAVID HAS KILLED HIS TENS OF THOUSANDS." "That miserable shrimp!" he was probably thinking, and he proceeded to go mad with envy. He wrecked his life because his ego would not allow him to take second place to anybody. It is not easy for any of us to take second place, is it?

I become amused when I read newspaper accounts of a professional athlete, who makes millions of dollars each year becoming unhappy and grouchy because another player signs a contract paying more money than he is getting. The problem is jealousy and selfishness. Such athletes claim they just want to get paid what they are worth-which would be much less than they were already making. Their ego will not allow them to come in second to anybody. The oldest joke in the world was told about a mother-in-law. A primitive woman runs into her cave and cries out to her cave man husband who is asleep on a bearskin rug, "Come quickly! A saber-toothed tiger is chasing my mother!" The unimpressed husband rolls over to go back to sleep as he says, "What has the tiger ever done for me? Why should I save him from your mother?"

General Robert E. Lee knew the value of playing second fiddle. This great general never stopped being a true southern gentleman. Once, while riding on a train to Richmond, he was seated at the rear of the car. All the other seats were filled with officers and soldiers. A poorly dressed, elderly woman boarded the coach at a rural station and, finding no seat offered to her, she trudged down the aisle toward the back of the car. Immediately, Lee stood up and offered her his seat. The other men then all rose one after another and offered the general his seat, "No, gentlemen," he replied, "if there are no seats for this lady, there can be none for me!" He knew how to play second fiddle.

The inability to play second fiddle when called for is a sign of selfishness and insecurity. Humility and the ability to give strong consideration to the needs of others are sign of self-respect. Lots of people need learn that.

Camp News - Whites Chapel Cemetery

We might entertain this opportunity. There are numerous Confederate veterans resting in White's Chapel. This group has done a wonderful job of maintaining this historic cemetery on the edge of Grapevine.

The Whites Chapel Cemetery Association has decided to publish a cookbook as a fundraiser. We are hoping to have it published no later than October 1, 2023. If you are interested in submitting your favorite family recipe to be included in our cookbook, please type out your recipe and submit it to wccemeteryassociation@gmail.com. The deadline is July 27th, 2023. You can submit as many recipes as you wish. Also you can customize the title of your recipe. For example, Aunt Bettie's Fudge Brownies. PENSACOLA CONTEMPT MOTION TO BE HEARD

Since 11th Circuit successful arguments in Montgomery, AL last year, Save Southern Heritage Florida's Pensacola Monument lawsuit is now out of federal court and back in an Escambia County, Florida Court, where it was originally filed. At a status conference today the court gave the Lady's Memorial Association 30 days to amend their complaint.

Back on the table is a Motion for contempt against the City of Pensacola, for violation of the Court's Temporary Restraining Order for placing a blue tarp over the Pensacola Confederate Monument contrary to the Court's order to "leave it alone." The renewed Motion for Contempt will be heard on 25 AUG at 1:30 PM.

HOUSE ARLINGTON AMENDMENT DOES NOT MAKE THE CUT! WE ARE NOT DONE YET - ON TO THE SENATE!

The House failed to pass Rep Bob Good's National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) Amendment to DEFUND Naming Commission recommendations - including defunding the destruction of the Confederate "Reconciliation" Memorial in Arlington National Cemetery. 41 cowardly Republicans, quailing at the Democrats calling them "white supremacists" if they voted for this amendment sided with the evil party to defeat the Amendment. The Democrats also chided the GOP for using something so important as military spending to fight a culture war. Never mind that politicizing the military spending bill to fight the culture war started with the Democrats 2 years ago!

Senator Tom Cotton of Arkansas has agreed to sponsor a defunding amendment when the Senate takes up amendments to the NDAA. We will get our supporters the actual wording of the amendment when it becomes available.

Go to www.sshfl.org/senate 202-224-3121 and call your 2 Senators - tell them to Support the Cotton Amendment to defund Naming commission recommendations, esp to defund the destruction of the Confederate "Reconciliation" Memorial in Arlington National Cemetery. Do this Monday and get your friends & family to call as well.

These politicians need to understand that when they allow the Dems to beat them up with "White Supremacy," tell them they condemn almost every American hero honored before 1965 - and the US Military was segregated until 1947. Once the Confeds are out of the way, - everyone else's heroes are next!

NEED FUNDS FOR CONSERVATION OF RARE DOC

100 copies of the Texas Ordinance of Secession & Declaration of Causes were printed on silk in MAR 1861 and presented to prominent Texas secessionists. 1 of 3 known to survive, this copy was presented to the Texas State Treasurer.. Once conserved, we will have the document appraised then sold. The conservation costs have been checked with other conservators and is reasonable. So help us get this document conserved - so it can help us in Arlington!

The Govt Motion to transfer the SCV Arlington case from Virginia federal court to the DC District and consolidate with the Defend Arlington lawsuit was granted today. SCV has the right to appeal the decision to the 4th Circuit

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

“To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.”

Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee Commander-General United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, Louisiana 1906

Remember, it is our duty to see that the true history of the South is preserved and presented to future generations.

Until we meet again, let us remember our obligations to our forefathers, who gave us the undeniable birthright of our Southern Heritage and the vision, desire and courage to see it perpetuated.
