Commanders Report

Greetings camp members, friends and fellow compatriots.

We cordially invite everyone to our regular scheduled meeting this Tuesday at Chill in Grapevine. If you are able, please try to join us for our “meet and greet” starting at 6:00 PM. We are extremely honored to have as our guest speaker Mr. Mark Vogl. This will be his third appearance as a speaker at our camp, and as always, he has given us a fantastic program. I’m sure he will have some of his books to purchase and autograph. With the Christmas season approaching it would be an opportunity to purchase a great gift for someone or just for yourself.

Our regular business meeting will commence after Mark’s presentation and autograph session. We will be voting on next year’s slate of officers, and we will remind all of our annual Christmas Get Together at Chill on the 10th of December.

This will be our last issue of the Gano Gazette for 2022. Frank and I would like to wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving and a very Merry Christmas to ya’ll.

Yours always in His service

Going Home

Hear the beautiful words of our Lord in John 14:1-3:

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in in God, believe in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”

We are preparing to celebrate Christmas, the birthday of our Lord and Savior and many of us will be traveling home to visit parents and likewise, our children and grand children will be coming home to us. I have been listening to a beautiful song that Mary Fahl sang for the movie Gods and Generals called “Going Home”. The lyrics and tune that reached into my Southern soul as to remind me of what the fight was all about.

*They say there's a place where dreams have all gone
They never said where but I think I know
It's miles through the night just over the dawn
On the road that will take me home
I know in my bones, I've been here before
The ground feels the same though the land's been torn
I've a long way to go the stars tell me so
On tis road that will take me home
And when I pass by, don't lead me astray
Don't try to stop me, don't stand in my way
I'm bound for the hills where cool waters flow
On this road that will take me home*

The Southern contemporary author, Dr. James Everett Kibler, writes keenly on home and the meaning of it in one of his novels Walking Toward Home. One of the character by the name of Kildee says: “Guess the best thing dirt roads do...is they slow people down. The world’s too much in a hurry, and usually with no place to go. Everything flies by in a blur. And people get to where they don’t belong anywhere and ain’t from no place at all.”

It seems that dirt roads take you home. Interstate highways take you to traffic jams.

No one doubts that the North was (and still is) a navigation society, the South a (and still is) agrarian society. A quote from Memory's Keep, “Those who travel seldom come home holy.” Holden Caulfield from Catcher in the Rye did not, nor did Yankee commercial ships. Travelers necessarily leave their homes, and with it, part of their souls.

My home is in Ft. Worth. This is where my wife, Karol, was born and raised. I sit on the back porch with a canopy of trees shading while providing for the blue jays, red birds, robins, a nest for squirrels. I hear the tapping of an occasional woodpecker, the cooing of a dove, and the soaring of a hawk high above. My two dogs alternately sleeping and watching me watch them, then occasionally bolting and chasing after a squirrel taking a short cut. My two boys (young men now) will be home for Christmas.

My home is also in Mississippi. That is where my roots are. My Mom left a foundation that unfortunately she was unable to complete. Kyle completed what was left undone. Mom and Dad are now at rest in Hutto, their graves facing East toward Mississippi and the rising sun. There is a place there for me when I "cross over the river". Not only will we be facing the rising sun, will all will be facing Mississippi. We will be smiling, for where we are and where we will be and what we will see.

The South will always be my home.

May the Lord bless and keep you may His face shine on you
May the Lord be gracious to you turn to you and give you peace.
Gather you in His arms, never let you go
Keep you safe from harm, God be with you.

Much thanks to Dr. James Kibler, and Paul Yarbrough.

This, and his receiving the Jeff Davis award recently is good publicity for the Gano Camp.

Congratulations Erin Cunningham!

2022-2023 TSRA SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS UPDATE

University Shotgun team. This past year, shooting and traveling to competitions were about all he was doing in his spare time. He competed in states such as Kansas, New Jersey, Arizona, and all over Texas. Sporting Clays has been a staple of his life, and the promotion of youth shooting continuously motivates him to keep shooting, spreading the positive aspects of our sports, and getting more people involved.

Anne White is currently attending Texas Christian University (TCU) in a five-year master's program for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Studies. She was honored with CRCA Academic All-American and competed for the TCU Rifle Team. During her freshman year, she posted scores that helped the TCU Team achieve their goals. Her air rifle scores helped set 7 new air rifle team records and 5 new aggregate team records. Anne's air rifle average is the second highest ever for a TCU freshman. Additionally, Anne is the 2022

Air Rifle All-American Honoree and the 2022 Collegiate Rifle Coaches Association Scholastic All-Academic Honoree. She has been a volunteer at the Dallas Safari Club as well as the local Fort Worth Dog shelters. She believes that working in the classroom, on the range, and in her community, all help to demonstrate her determination to be the best she can possibly be, in all aspects of her life.

SPORTSMAN'S SCHOLARSHIPS:

Erin Vincent Cunningham

comes from ranch land near Decatur, Texas. In his senior year, he earned the Trail Life USA Freedom Award for building shooting benches for the Decatur Police Department and Wise Co. Sheriff deputies. As a third-year varsity letterman, he returned with the Wise County Clay Target Team to San Antonio for the SCTP State Championships in June. After high school graduation, he served as a junior counselor for a local Christian youth camp, worked in the security industry, and hunted hogs in Oklahoma. Erin loves shooting sports, outdoor adventure, auto mechanics, and community theater. He is a member of the National Sporting Clays Association,

American Trapshooting Association, TSRA, Association of the United States Army, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and National Society of High School Scholars. After receiving a Baylor Distinction Award and Sportsman's Scholarship from TSRA, Erin started his first year at Baylor University's Institute for Air Science in Waco, with plans to graduate in 2026.

Casin Sellaers is a recent high school graduate of Central Texas Christian School. He is attending Texas A&M University Kingsville and plans to major in Wildlife and Range

Management. Casin enjoys shooting sports and was honored to be selected to attend the National 4-H Shooting Sports Championships in Nebraska this summer, participating on the Texas 4-H Hunting Wildlife team that placed third nationally. In addition to outings with family and friends, Casin has had the opportunity to hunt through TSRA, NRA YHEC, TYHP, and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Mentored Hunting Program. Casin enjoys sharing his passion for shooting sports and the outdoors with others and plans to continue to volunteer with organizations that support these endeavors.

National News - Arlington National Cemetery Memorial Monument

Fellow Compatriots and Patriots,

I am sure you are aware of the repulsive attack upon the Confederate Memorial at Arlington National Cemetery. As patriotic Americans and members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, I am calling on you to help us protest this effort by radicals in Congress and the Military establishment.

Below is a link to an automatic e-mail service the SCV is using to get our message to your local politicians. This system is simple to use and very user-friendly. As soon as you fill in your information, it will use your zip code to automatically select your U. S. Senators and the Military Leadership responsible for renaming U. S. Military Bases. It will then send the e-mail message already provided. This system allows you to personalize and/or change the subject line and the actual email message.

Everything is done for you; all you need to do is click on the link below, fill out your information and click the submit button. Remember, you can modify the message already there if you desire but it is not necessary. Also, as gentlemen and defenders of the honor of our ancestors always be polite and courteous because we will be judged by our actions and words. This is about the power of the individual. This is about the power that you as a citizen possess. Fellow Compatriots and Patriots, let us hit them hard with our e-mails.

The link below allows you to send your message to your U.S. Senators and U. S. Military Leadership in charge of removing proud Southern names from our nation's military bases.

VA Flaggers Update

Rebel Yell and CONGRATULATIONS to our brothers in the Adam Washington Ballenger SCV Camp #68 who raised and dedicated a brand new mega flag yesterday on I-85 near Spartanburg, South Carolina!

The 30' x 50' AOT battle flag was raised on a 120' pole and is visible 50' above the heavily traveled highway!

God bless the men of the Bellenger Camp, and all of those willing to continue to forward the colors!

Susan Lee, Virginia Flaggers

Many, many thanks to the men of the High Bridge SCV Camp who serve as Guardians of the flag for our Rt 460 High Bridge Memorial Battle Flag site in Farmville. A few weeks ago, they replaced the original flag, which was beginning to wear, with a new 20' x 30' flag, thanks to the generous support of folks like you!

The flag is still flying, in spite of ongoing attempts by the Prince Edward County Board of Supervisors to have it removed. Despite the fact that a building permit was issued, a final inspection passed, and their own Board of Zoning Appeals ruled in our favor, they have instructed their attorneys (at taxpayer expense) to appeal the decision and continue to harass our landowner through further court action.

The ongoing court battle with them is currently briefly paused as a new judge is assigned, but our legal bills continue to mount. Please consider making a donation to the High Bridge Memorial Battle Flag legal fund, and help us fight back against this blatant government overreach, and keep her flying high!

If you would like to help with the ongoing legal expenses, Please make checks payable to

JOIN THE CONFEDERATE LEGION

Membership in the Legion supports the Southern Victory Campaign.

Dues and donations are used almost exclusively for a two-prong counter-attack that we call the Southern Victory Campaign. It's led by the Heritage operations Committee of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Objectives include:

Rebuilding public support for the same principles of liberty that America's founding fathers believed in.

Rebuilding respect for the Confederate States of America that preferred to leave the Union rather than abandon the principles of liberty as the Northern states were doing under Leftist influences of the day.

Direct action by the SCV is one prong of the offensive. The second prong includes you and your organization.

It's not necessary to be a member or camp of the SCV to participate in the campaign.

We depend on God and you for the victory we seek.

Back in Oct, the young Jr ROTC Cadet at right wore a Confederate uniform as part of an historical color guard at an Erwin High School Asheville, NC football game opening ceremony.

This sparked woke media criticism and back peddling by school officials. Apparently this crime against humanity will not be allowed a repeat. We waited to hear if the student would be punished - and though not officially, he has received irrational and bigoted criticism from all the usual suspects, His Mom reached out to HK:

From: Melissa

I wanted to reach out to you because my son really wants to meet you. My son saw your response in the Daily Planet about him and was so happy someone stood by his side when so many didn't. I was so upset that my sons face was plastered all over the news and social media. People say hurtful and ignorant things online. The thing is that my son did not understand why so many people were upset that he wore the confederate uniform at the Erwin game. His mind does not think like that. He thought that he was honoring fallen soldiers. My son does not have a hateful bone in his body so it hurts to see people treat him like he is. Like me, he loves learning about history and loves the military. He wants to go into the military when he graduates. My sons is a sophomore this year. It would mean so much to my son if he could meet you one day.

We are waiting to hear back from the young man's Mom, where the local SCV and the SLRC have a few nice surprises for him, A CSS Hunley Award from the SCV and a Bazz Childress Heritage Award from the SCV, and a steak dinner!

 "DEFENDING THEIR HONOR SINCE 1896"

What is the Sons of Confederate Veterans?
 The citizen-soldiers who fought for the Confederacy personified the best qualities of America. The preservation of liberty and freedom was the motivating factor in the South's decision to fight the Second American Revolution. The tenacity with which Confederate soldiers fought underscored their belief in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. These attributes are the underpinning of our democratic society and represent the foundation on which this nation was built.

Today, the Sons of Confederate Veterans is preserving the history and legacy of these heroes, so future generations can understand the motives that animated the Southern Cause.

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans, and the oldest hereditary organization for male descendants of Confederate soldiers. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved.

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish."

Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee Commander-General United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, Louisiana 1906

Remember, it is our duty to see that the true history of the South is preserved and presented to future generations.

Until we meet again, let us remember our obligations to our forefathers, who gave us the undeniable birthright of our Southern Heritage and the vision, desire and courage to see it perpetuated.
