Commanders Report

Greetings Fellow Compatriots,

It is our honor to have at our Camp meeting on October 19th Mr. Bruce Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham has informed me that he will be presenting a PowerPoint presentation on General Robert E. Lee. I hope that all Camp members and guests will be able to attend our monthly meeting at Chill in Grapevine. Come at 6 PM to enjoy some great food and Sothern hospitality. I recently purchased (at a bargain price) John Beauchamp Jones two volume set entitled A Rebel War Clerk's Diary. This set was originally published in 1866 and reprinted in 1981 in two beautiful bound volumes. Jones served as a clerk with the Confederate War Department just days after Fort Sumpter until after the War. I noted in my brief readings that Jones's daily entries mirrored the hopes, reactions and feelings of the Southern capital and its government while accompanying a predictable dislike of Yankees. I have an affection for primary sources and in upcoming Gano Gazette I will include excerpts. It has been my honor to have been recently selected as Chaplain of the 3rd Brigade and as always, I will strive to assist our Brigade and our Division Chaplain whenever called for service.

"You Can Depend on Me"

*"Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may continually come;
you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and fortress."*

Psalm 71:3

One of the most popular film genres of all time is the western. Westerns became popular because Americans romanticized the frontier spirit of the Old West, where people succeeded because of arduous work, determination, rugged independence, and self-reliance.

The icon of the western was Marion Morrison, better known as John Wayne. He appeared in 142 films, most of them westerns and some of them directed by John Ford. Wayne was a top box office draw for three decades. Wayne's hit films included Stagecoach, Red River, The Alamo, The Longest Day, True Grit, The Cowboys, and his last film The Shootist. Critics have stated that Wayne's best performance was in John Ford's movie The Searchers and in my opinion, this is Wayne's best performance.

In The Searchers we are introduced to Wayne's character, Ethan Edwards as he appears at his brother's home in southern Texas wearing his "Johnny Reb coat" some three years after The War Between the States. Later in the film the Reverend Clayton (Ward Bond) wants to deputize Ethan into the Texas Rangers, Ethan replies: "A man is only good for one oath at a time. I took mine to the Confederate States of America."

Here are some famous lines uttered by Wayne in films:

"Well, there are some things a man just can't run away from."

"Sorry don't get it done, Dude."

"Well, son, since you haven't learned to respect your elders, it's time you learned to respect your betters."

In the films of John Wayne, dependence is a sign of weakness. In the world of David dependence was a necessity.

David was the king of Israel. During his forty-year reign, he ruled over a united kingdom, led them to victory in many battles, expanded the area of the kingdom, and paved the way for his son, Solomon, to build the Temple. David recognized; however, that his successes in life were blessings from God. He owed his accomplishments, his position, his possessions, and his very life to God.

In Psalm 71, David admits that he needs God, every day. He prays that he can depend on God continually, as he has done throughout his life. David is not ashamed of his dependence on God; instead, he celebrates it. After all, the "God of angel armies has commanded his troops to protect David (Psalm 24:9-10).

God is the rock of refuge to which you can come any time you need to, Pilgrim.

Father, our world in the Western Hemisphere has the western movie mentality that dependence means weakness. Remind me that reliance on you equals strength. Amen.

Compatriots I have received Division dues from approximately 80 percent of all camps in the Division. The Division has 373 Division Life members of which includes about 8 new Life members. My guesstimate of total members paid including Life members is just under 2000. This seems to be normal having some history of performing this job. I expect the remaining camps who have not paid dues will do so very soon.

The Texas Division has 94 active camps with one new camp forming as I speak. Kyle Sims has been working very hard organizing the new camp in Graham Texas. It looks like it will have over 20 members to charter this new camp. The new camp will be number 319 which was the camp that existed in Graham many years ago.

I want to thank every camp Adjutant and or Commander who has sent in dues for their camp. They are the back bone of the Division and if these guys did not work as hard as they have done collecting dues and separating the Division dues from the National dues and going thru the hassle of filling out forms and licking stamps and finally keeping their camps running, the Texas Division would not exist

Sincerely,

Allen Hearrean

SLRC Update

Compatriots

On 21 SEP our local counsel received a terse message from the (all Republican) Supreme Court in our 2 monument cases against the Criminal Enterprise that is the City of Dallas: DENIED

We asked the Supreme Court to accept our 2 cases - asking the following questions:

Question #1 Does the City of Dallas have to follow State law? - Court response: "WE DON'T CARE!!!"

Question #2 Does the City of Dallas have to follow its own statutes & procedures? Court response:- WE DON'T CARE!!

Question #3 Does the Rule of Law apply to Texas big cities? Court response: WE DON'T CARE!!

So sayeth the Court

The case against the Criminals in Dallas could not have been clearer. Are the Court members stupid? I think not. Are they spineless RINO cowards quailing and unwilling to take on Texas' corrupt big cities? BINGO!

I was initially depressed by this. I don't know why. This act of cowardice was always a real possibility in our planning.

But now their cowardice & failure to act is on the record!

But now that I've thought more about it - I AM MAD, AND DETERMINED THAT WE, AS REPRESENTING THE NORMAL PEOPLE OF TEXAS, THE SOUTH & AMERICA, CANNOT GIVE UP. WE MUST FIGHT ON! In Texas we must muster our troops and fight a political, not judicial fight. We still have important cases in McKinney, Weatherford & Kaufman.

An SLRC Bd Member is going back to the "Supreme Court of the US to nullify the so-called Government Speech doctrine - other important Monument cases in Florida, Virginia, Georgia & North Carolina, can use our help & expertise. They will get it.

And our most important outreach, the 80 million disenfranchised voters from the last "election."

We must teach ourselves and our 80 million potential new friends how to organize locally for Liberty issues . How to start a 501c4 public interest corporation. How to run for a school board election; how to clean RINOS out of your local GOP, media access in an era of black outs. Urging allied groups to form (and how to form) workable political coalitions.) Making (mostly unwanted) leadership suggestions to major Southern Heritage groups.

We still have a place in the ongoing struggle for Liberty and we need your support. I do need your help in reducing the lawsuit debt I have taken on- so we will have funds for travel and further active service.

I will be at my friend, FRED MORSE'S Memorial SAT 16 OCT 2021 10Am at Camp Mabry in Austin, Texas. Fred gave over $200,000 to monument Defense & Confederate causes, so let us give aour fellow departed Compatriot & warrior a good send off. And afterwards let us have a gathering of Eagles to discuss our next steps. Y'all be there if you can.
