There Ain't Nothin' Wrong With The Radio

Sometimes she runs, sometimes she don't
More than once she's left me on the side of the road
The older she gets the slower we go
But there ain't nothin' wrong with the radio
She needs a carburetor, a set of plug wires
She's ridin' me around on four bald tires
The wipers don't work and the horn don't blow
But there ain't nothin' wrong with the radio

I've got sixteen speakers crossin' my back dash
A little bobbin' dog watchin' everybody pass
Dual antennas whippin' in the wind
Lord, there ain't a country station that I can't tune in
She ain't a Cadillac and she ain't a Rolls
But there ain't nothin' wrong with the radio

I got stopped by a cop late last night
Out-of-date tags and no tail lights
He said I oughta run you in but I'm lettin' you go
Because there ain't nothin' wrong with your radio
I got the best lookin' gal in my hometown
I asked her last time that i took her out
Honey, tell me what it is that makes you love me so
She said there ain't nothin' wrong with your radio

No, she ain't a Cadillac and she ain't a Rolls
But there ain't nothin' wrong with the radio ...

SPOKESMAN DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Mark Limmer

Did anyone notice that it's getting a little cooler outside? Does anyone think it's becoming perfect Model A driving weather? If so, let the people hear some loud "Aoooga's"! Many of us did just that in Hiawassee and were rewarded with many smiles, thumps up and great parking lot conversations with strangers. As usual the trip was fun with a full schedule of activities. The parade with the always popular "throwing of the candy," the Fair, great Barbeque and especially the friendship of our club. And to top it off we had an unscheduled Tech Meet in the Dollar General parking lot. My Buford (slant window sedan) coughed and sputtered just enough to get into the parking lot. But I'm the luckiest guy in the world to have the best Model A mechanics at one place to open the hood and get Buford going again. I continue to learn more about the car by just watching and listening to the experts diagnose the problem and I thank all who helped!! I got home with no problems and that is the good news. The bad/good news is that Buford will now be getting a new B engine and Mitchell transmission. The look on Roger Allen's face as he first heard the engine told it all. It said to me "get this car home, put it in the trailer and go replace that engine." Well, that's all part of our hobby but now Buford and I will be ready for some serious road trips.

Those trips will include the Apple Run on September 20 and the Perry Georgia National Fair October 9-12. Make sure your "A" is tuned up and ready to go and let's have some fun!

Let's roll.

Mark Limmer

Hiawassee 2025

Happy Birthday, Ellis and John

Maintaining the Model A Cooling System

With driving season in high gear, and temperatures in the 90s every day, I thought we better touch on the cooling system.

Radiator maintenance schedule

To keep your radiator in good condition, it's essential to follow a regular maintenance schedule. Here's a general guideline:

Monthly:

1. Check coolant levels: Ensure the coolant level is at the recommended level. Use a good quality antifreeze to help keep rust and corrosion in your radiator under control.
2. Inspect hoses and belts: Look for signs of wear, cracks, or damage.
3. Monitor temperature gauge: Keep an eye on the temperature gauge to detect any unusual readings. Note: a good cooling system should run within 100 degrees of the outside temperature.

Every 3-6 Months:

1. Check coolant condition: Test the coolants pH level and corrosion inhibitors.
2. Inspect radiator cap: Ensure the cap is tight and functioning correctly.

Every 12-24 Months:

1. Flush and refill coolant: Replace the coolant with a new mixture.
2. Inspect radiator core: Look for signs of corrosion, leaks, or damage.

Every 5 Years:

1. Replace radiator hoses: Replace hoses with new ones, even if they appear to be in good condition.

Apple Run to Ellijay, Saturday, September 20

Save the Date, plans are now being made for another beautiful Fall day of touring and eating in the mountains of North Georgia. We may even bring home some apples!

This year we will eat lunch at the Rally Point Grill located at 96 Craig Street in Ellijay.

We have reserved their private dining room for Noon. They have excellent sandwiches, salads, wings and more. Click HERE for the menu. Please let me know if you can join us, so we can get a head count. Bentley Bohanan 678-407-1947
