15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:30b-31, 33

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From our Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We are in the fifteenth week of the ordinary season. The first reading tells us about how to attain a good life, is it possible to live a good life? Many ancient myths, stories and legends portray heroes scaling great heights to obtain rare knowledge from the realm of the gods or traversing a sea of death to achieve immortal wisdom. According to these traditions, attaining a good life was nearly impossible. According to Deuteronomy, the good life is readily attainable by following and practicing the commandments of God and building intimate relationships with him.

The second reading is a hymn rooted in biblical poetry and ancient wisdom traditions. The result is a constellation of rich theological claims about Christ. In this passage we see that the cosmos consists of God on the one hand and all of creation on the other. At the nexus of the two is Christ Jesus through whom all things came into existence, hold together and remain in existence. Is our relationship with the cosmos and both our spiritual and material life centered around Christ Jesus our Lord?

The Gospel presents the parable of the Good Samaritan and the question of attaining eternal life. First-century Judaism helped people to understand the truth of Torah, the law, whose golden rule is love of God and love of neighbor. While the first is obvious, the scholar was in a dilemma about who could be his neighbor. Through the parable the Lord makes it clear to him to go above and beyond the spiritual and cultural expectations to help the needy, who is our neighbor. Do we understand, accept and practice to help our neighbor?

Fr. Aloysius Royan Anthony

"But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him." - Lk 10:33-34

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

Summer Choir sings the 9:30AM Mass each Sunday through the summer. Summer choir is a casual, impromptu group for everyone--adults and kids.

The next small group session with Dick Huseby will take place this Monday, July 14 at 10AM in the CCC. Coffee, donuts, prayer, fellowship, nostalgia...it's all good. Summer visitors, please do join us—we'd love to meet you!

Choir schedules for the Fall season are posted on the parish website, including Youth Choir, Parish (Adult Choir), Canticle Ensemble, and Advent Concert Choir. Summer is a great time to consider music ministry and give it a try. Wonderful friendships have been formed in our choirs and our cantor group, and new members are always welcome!

Advent Concert 2025 is on the calendar for Sunday, December 7. Please help spread the word that all singers are welcome, and our first rehearsal will be held on Tuesday, September 2. After the first week, rehearsals will move to Monday evenings from 6-8PM. Recently I spoke with one of last year's first-timers to the choir, who shyly came to the first practice feeling timid and inadequate. She asked me if we're on target for another concert, and when I said "yes", she said, "Oh good, because I've already recruited new singers!" It's messy and risky to commit to the unknown, but the graces of something new can surprise us. When we gather together to allow ourselves to be moved by the Spirit, we find unexpected healing and mending and joy.

Calling all bakers!! The Parish Festival is right around the corner and we need your help. A donation of a homemade pie or pies for the pie garden would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Julia at 715-453-2878 with any baking needs or questions. Pies can be dropped off at the parish office during office hours (8:00AM-3:30PM) the week of July 21-July 25. God bless your hands for baking and thank you for your help and support of our parish—see you at the festival!

From the Parish Nurse

"I'm tired of all this nonsense about beauty being only skin deep. That's deep enough. What do you want, an adorable pancreas?" (Jean Kerr)

Acne comes in the form of blackheads, whiteheads or red, swollen bumps on the skin. They usually come to a head, erupt, drain a clear or yellowish fluid, and then crust over. Yuck! Preventing and treating these breakouts include:

- Clean your skin gently using a mild skin cleanser morning and evening and also gently pat your skin dry. Don't scrub or rub as this could further irritate your skin.
- Try over-the-counter medications (ointments) that contain benzoyl peroxide or salicylic acid to help clear and prevent blemishes.
- Shave using electric razors, shaving lightly to avoid nicking blemishes.
- Avoid picking, squeezing or pinching as this increases the risk of developing scars.
- Choose cosmetics, such as foundation, blush, eye shadow, or a facial moisturizer carefully (choose oil-free cosmetics).
- Consult a healthcare provider if you suspect a pimple has become infected or your acne is severe and leaves scars.

Three of many myths about acne include: 1) Sun tanning can help acne. While a suntan or sunburn makes blemishes less visible and the skin feel drier for a short time, the benefits are only temporary. The sun can seriously damage skin, promoting skin aging and cancer. 2) Chocolate and greasy foods are often blamed, but research has shown that foods seem to have little effect on the development or course of acne in most people. 3) Acne lesions are not caused by dirt. Doctors believe it results from several related factors such as rising hormone levels, genetics, stress (particularly severe or prolonged emotional tension), and friction caused by leaning on or rubbing the skin.

Enjoy being out in the summer sun but be careful to protect you and your skin! God bless!

Ann Jelinek RN, PN

Reminder: Blood pressure screenings next weekend. See you there!

Your Help is Needed!

Some of our parish family members have been out of touch for a while, and we miss them. In our ongoing efforts to revitalize and grow, we would love to reconnect with them and to welcome them to be a part of our growth. As we continue to reach out to members of our parish community who have been absent, we are asking for your help. If you know someone who once attended church regularly, but whom you have not seen for some time, would you be willing to check on them and invite them to church? Or are you willing to ask them if they are open to a call or visit from Fr. Aloysius or a member of our Welcome Home Team? If so, please let us know by calling or emailing the parish office. We welcome the opportunity to invite these members to engage more fully in the spiritual, social and sacramental life of our parish. Thank you for your help. In the words of our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, "In the One, we are one".
