19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

- Lk 12:39-40

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From our Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We are in the nineteenth ordinary Sunday of year C. The first reading from Wisdom explores three key topics for both biblical and Greek wisdom traditions: foreknowledge, divine justice and the good. These three topics described in the reading lead us to a better understanding of who the people are, who God is, and the relationship between them. How do we try to grow in our relationship with God and His people, through the wisdom we gain by our spiritual life?

Second reading tells us about the significance of faith in one's life. The Old Testament community identified faith as a profoundly personal and spiritual reality which is constitutively tied to salvation history. OT figures like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob endured their lives by abiding in faith. They not only recognized God's goodness but trusted it. By faith, they saw a future they would never occupy and remained confident in God's promises to them. How does our faith lead us to attain God's promises?

The Gospel continues the themes found in the first and second readings in the context of one's relationship with God and with others. The first part of the Gospel tells us that God delights in giving the kingdom to us. Additionally, faithful trust in the Father's generosity calls for vigilant engagement in the Lord's work. The second part is a dialogue between Peter and Jesus, considering the negative repercussions of unfaithfulness. Our Lord contrasts faithful and unfaithful stewards. Which category we wish to belong between these two types of stewards? Do we consider our stewardship significant and be faithful fulfilling our responsibilities?

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

Summer Choir sings the 9:30AM Mass each Sunday through Labor Day weekend. We've had a consistent attendance all summer, which is great!

The next small group session with Dick Huseby will take place this Monday, August 11 at 10AM in the CCC. Coffee, donuts, prayer, fellowship, sharing stories of our faith and inspiration...it's all good. Summer visitors, please do join us—we'd love to meet you!

All choir schedules for the fall season are posted on the parish website, including Parish Choir, Youth Choir, Canticle, and Advent Concert Choir.

It's hard to believe, but our first Advent Concert gathering will be held on Tuesday, September 2. Pre-registration is encouraged, to reserve your music folder. ALL ARE WELCOME!

St. Mary's musicians—You may have received an email with the registration flyer for our annual Diocesan Music Conference and Workshop on September 26-27 in Amery, WI. Our facilitator this year will be Fr. Jim Marchionda. Contact Jan to register!

Important notice for all liturgical ministers, but especially those who attend 11AM Mass on Sundays—the next schedule will be determined soon, so changes are required. From September 7 through next Memorial Day weekend, we will have the usual 6PM Mass on Saturday, but only one Mass on Sunday morning at 9:30AM (no 11AM Mass). This is to honor the bishop's request that priests limit their number of weekend Masses to four. The 11AM volunteers are asked to consider whether they wish to change their preference to 6PM or 9:30AM and let Jan know ASAP. Thank You!

Youth Religious Education

Registration forms have been sent out for children in K-8th grade for Religious Education classes starting in September. If you did not receive registration forms, the forms are available on our website, in the parish office, or by contacting Laura Reiter at finance@smctomahawk.com. There will be a parent informational meeting for all families on Wednesday, August 20 at 5:30PM in the CCC. There are a few changes for the program this year, so be sure to come and hear all the details.

Fresh Produce

It's time to start thinking about getting ready for another busy school year. We are getting the kitchen ready to prepare the wonderful lunches our school has become famous for. At this time of year, many of us are harvesting fresh fruits and vegetables from our gardens. According to DPI regulations, we are allowed to accept donations of fresh (not canned or frozen) produce. As you begin to harvest your crops, if you are fortunate enough to have extra fresh produce that you would like to donate to the hot lunch program it can be dropped off at school from 9AM-2PM Monday through Friday. We are proud to offer fresh fruit and vegetables as part of our healthy meals. Thank you in advance for helping us provide this to our students.

Uniform Exchange

We now have our Uniform Exchange set up in the lobby at school. Stop in to pick up uniform clothes or backpacks and feel free to drop off any clothes that no longer fit. There is no charge for any of the clothing items. Please take advantage of this great opportunity! The Uniform Exchange will be open during school office hours. Before you go shopping, check out what we have available!

The 2025/26 Catholic Services Appeal

Next weekend, August 16 & 17, our parish will host the 2025/26 Catholic Services Appeal. This appeal presents an opportunity for our faith community to come together and fulfill the work of the Lord. All families are encouraged to participate in supporting the CSA. By contributing to the CSA, you are responding to God's call to discipleship, prioritizing His work over personal needs. The Church serves each of us in some capacity, and your financial support is essential for continuing God's mission in our area. Additionally, every dollar donated to the Appeal helps our parish cover its annual fair share of diocesan financial responsibilities. Please give generously, no gift is too small!

Online Giving to the Catholic Services Appeal is also available and provides you with a secure and easy way to make a gift to the CSA. Your parish is automatically credited with your gift. To give online go to www.catholicdos.org.

From the Parish Nurse

Picnic and barbecue season offers lots of opportunities for outdoor fun with family and friends. Warm weather events present opportunities for foodborne bacteria to thrive and multiply rapidly.

Food safety begins with proper hand cleaning - including in outdoor settings. If you don't have access to running water, use a water jug, some soap and paper towels. Or, consider using moist disposable towelettes for cleaning your hands. Take care to keep all utensils and platters clean when preparing food.

- Keep cold food cold in a cooler with ice or frozen gel packs. Meat, poultry and seafood may be packed while still frozen so that they stay cold longer.
- Organize cooler contents. Pack beverages in one cooler and perishable foods in another. That way, as picnickers open and reopen the beverage cooler the perishable foods won't be exposed to warm outdoor air temperatures.
- Limit the number of times the cooler is opened as much as you can. This helps to keep the contents cold longer.
- Be sure to keep raw meat, poultry and seafood securely wrapped, keeping their juices from contaminating prepared/cooked foods or foods that will be eaten raw.
- Clean your produce before packing them in the cooler - including those with skins and rinds that are not eaten. Dry fruits and vegetables with a clean cloth towel or paper towel. Packaged fruits and vegetables that are labeled "ready-to-eat", "washed" or "triple washed" need not be washed.
- Keeping food at proper temperatures (indoor and out) is critical in preventing the growth of foodborne bacteria. The key is to never let your picnic food remain in the "Danger Zone" (between 40°F and 140°F) for more than 2 hours or 1 hour if outdoor temperatures are above 90°F. This is when bacteria in food can multiply rapidly and lead to foodborne illness.

Protecting yourself, and your family and friends from foodborne illness safe food handling is critical.

"Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique."
