25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon.” - Lk 16:8b, 13

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From our Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We are on the twenty fifth ordinary Sunday of year C. The first reading speaks about the corruption and injustice done to the poor. Amos is the prophet who promoted social justice. Closely connected to this lack of social justice is the dismissive attitude some people had toward worshipping God. This is evidenced by their targeting of the vulnerable in society, the needy and the poor. But God takes up the case on behalf of those in need. Do we try to look up to God in need? Do we promote and practice social justice?

The second reading provides instructions on prayer which are rooted in very practical considerations. St. Paul encourages people to pray for everyone in general and for those in authority more specifically to encourage and allow them to continue worshipping God and spreading the good news. Once this is promoted amidst political and social unrest, life will be peaceful. It is the need of the day for a peaceful life across the world, which reminds us to pray for our political leaders. Do we feel responsible to pray for our authorities?

The gospel presents the parable on the dishonest steward. The master's words are a recognition of the effectiveness of the steward's actions that secured him friends and potential future employment. Here it is not advocating dishonest practices but highlights the shrewdness of the steward. Instead of clinging to material wealth, we are called to be good stewards within our given gifts and possessions. Alms giving is an important aspect of Christian living, which does not fail us when we die, instead will help us to attain eternal life. What is our priority, God or mammon?

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?" - Lk 16:10-11

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

Youth Choir will NOT have practice this Wednesday, September 24.

Advent Concert Choir will rehearse on Monday, September 22. If you still want to join the choir, we can help you catch up, but hurry! You're missing a lot of fun.

Please keep Fr. Aloysius and ten of our musicians in your prayers next weekend, on Friday and Saturday, as they gather in Amery with music ministers from throughout the diocese. This annual retreat, led this year by Fr. Jim Marchionda, provides an excellent opportunity for us to sing and pray together, to sharpen our skills, and to spiritually grow in our ministry. Spiritual retreats are a wonderful way to revive and restore the dedication that is required to volunteer in a role that can be very challenging, especially when we try to balance our personal and our spiritual commitments. Simple expressions of gratitude and appreciation are very meaningful to these dedicated people.

On Catechetical Sunday we ask God's blessing on our Catechists.

Thank You

A BIG thank you to all who have donated wish list items to our school and for all the prayers and support given. We are truly thankful and blessed. Also, thank you for sharing your extra garden veggies with us. The students are reaping the benefits of these wonderful vegetables. Again, we are blessed and thankful!

Prayer Sponsors

This year we are looking for people to be a prayer sponsor for each school and church staff member. Maybe you could send them a card once in awhile, come in and see their classroom or office, or stop in to just say hello. Most importantly, pray for them. If you are interested, please call the school at 715-453-3542 to adopt a staff member.

Tuition Assistance Help Needed

We have two families that are in need of financial help with their tuition. One is a new family and the other would like to enroll her daughter in our Preschool program. Here at St. Mary's School we do our best to make sure all who wish to attend our school are able to. With that said, we are currently out of tuition assistance for this school year and we have two families in our school community who are in need of financial assistance with tuition.

- New Family: This family is newly joining our school community and is seeking support to help cover tuition costs as they get settled.
- Returning Family: A returning parent would like to enroll her daughter in our Preschool program but requires financial assistance to make this possible.

We would greatly appreciate any support or guidance you can offer as we work to ensure both children have access to our faith based, quality early education experience. Please let Mrs. Skubal know the next steps or if any additional information is needed. Thank you and God bless!

From the Parish Nurse

"Most of the stuff people worry about ain't never gonna happen anyway" (Unknown).

As summer ends and fall begins a feeling of loneliness comes. Loneliness has many faces. Loneliness is the state in which an individual is at risk for experiencing discomfort associated with a desire or need for contact with others (The North American Nursing Diagnosis Association describes). Solitude is a self-determined decision to be alone without others for comfort and rest.

How does one cope with loneliness? God's gifts of time and talent are endless. Stop feeling guilty when spending some time in a leisure activity or project you've been wanting to do! Hobbies are soul soothers that can bring out the best of your creative side. Your sense of personal accomplishment and self-esteem are given a great boost and your stress is relieved. And who knows, new friendships and opportunities for support may mushroom.

Start by deciding how much time you have to devote to a hobby and the cost (purchasing only the basics until you know for sure it is the right choice). Decide if you prefer a contemplative, private time activity, or a stimulating group interaction. And don't forget the family. Family friendly hobbies get everyone exploring new interests and encourage skills (decision making, goal setting, problem solving, and hand-eye coordination). If you and your children have similar interests it may become an enjoyable activity and give you time together.

Take time and resolve to pursue an interest, develop a dream, learn a new skill, and thank God for this blessing of time, talent and life.

God bless all! ~ Ann Jelinek RN, PN

FORGIVENESS AND
