THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” - Mk 1:7-8

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From the Pastor

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Make new determinations: Be What You Want To Be

It is your willpower that is going to determine what you are able to do - nothing else - not your past habits. Doubt can destroy everything, but faith can accomplish anything. Let nothing weaken your conviction that you can be whatever you want to be. Not to use your will is to be inert like a stone. There is always a way to find it if you think hard enough until it is luminous enough to reveal to you the way to your goal. The power of suggestion is very strong. The ability to accomplish is all in the mind. Remember that as a child of God you are endowed with the same potentialities as the most excellent among men. Cast away all negative thoughts and fears. Fear of death is ridiculous. We, all believers, have a share in the Resurrection of Christ.

In every situation be calmly active and actively calm. Your trials did not come to you to punish you, but to awaken you – to make you realize that you are a part of Spirit and that just behind the spark of your life is the flame of Infinity; great light of God; all fulfilling love of God. Your fulfillment lies not in obtaining the objects of your carnal desires, but in the unfoldment of your soul qualities in making the efforts to succeed in worthwhile endeavors. Bad habits are the worst enemies you can have. You are punished by these habits. Every day should be a transition from bad habits to good habits and that is the end of it. Stay away from those things that stimulate bad habits. Do not test yourself with temptations.

Enter the New Year with new hope. Whenever you think of yourself, think of others. When you are making others happy, you are making yourself happy and pleasing God. Remember, you are a child of God so be proud of it. No matter what comes, believe it is the Lord who is allowing it to come to you and you must succeed in conquering those daily challenges. Do His Will and nothing can hurt you. You are safe and secure in the hands of God. “The Lord is my shepherd , there is nothing I shall want”. (Psalm 23)

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, which officially ends the Christmas season. The decorations will be packed away for another year, we return to the Ordinary Time for a few weeks, and then we will begin the season of Lent.

One of the bittersweet events that we marked in this Christmas season was the passing of an unforgettable friend, Charlie Berg. Charlie was very special to me, and to many, and I'd like to share some thoughts about Charlie—the friend, the teacher, the singer, the “poster child” for the term “servant”. For me, the litmus test for a servant heart is humility—quiet, unassuming, selfless giving to others—which Charlie passed with flying colors. Looking back through many years of choir photos, Charlie was the constant presence of the Parish Choir (summer and winter), Resurrection Choir, Advent Concert Choir, Parish Mission Choir, and Men’s Choir (for which Charlie personally recruited members—“no” was not an option). Charlie was the over-achiever, and if I congratulated him for recruiting 30 men, his answer was always “shoulda’ been more”. Charlie’s watch must have been set on Eastern time, because he was an hour early for every event, which I enjoyed because it gave me time to visit with him. I know there were times when he didn’t feel well, or strong enough to stand for a long time, but he persevered and viewed his physical ailments as annoyances that slowed him down. He loved our choir parties and was amused by our antics and silly games. Charlie’s life was an illustration of devotion and faith in action. He taught me that “love” is a verb, and that life becomes a prayer that honors God by the way we care for others. I will miss him deeply... “may the circle be unbroken”. Thank you, Charlie.

Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father

A new six-week study, the Consecration to St. Joseph, will begin at St. Mary’s Church on February 10. In the midst of crisis, confusion, and a world at war with the Church, it’s time to come home again to our spiritual father, St. Joseph. In this richly researched and lovingly presented program of consecration to St. Joseph, Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, brings to life the wonders, the power, and the ceaseless love of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church and the Terror of Demons. Please call the parish office at 715-453-2878 to register, noting if you would prefer a morning, afternoon or evening session. Books have been ordered, and a $15 donation towards the cost of the book is greatly appreciated.

Youth & Religious Ed News

“I come as a pilgrim of peace and an apostle of hope” – Pope Francis

Greetings St. Mary’s parish family! I am excited to begin serving in the role as Director of Religious Education. I come to you with a varied and diverse background with one commonality - service to the Church. I have been a Catholic school elementary teacher (1st, 2nd and 4th), Faith Formation Coordinator, and worked for the Archdiocese of St. Louis in the Office of Education and Formation. My undergraduate degree is in elementary education and my graduate degree is in Franciscan Studies with an emphasis in theology.

While I have worked in Arizona, Ohio and Missouri, it is good to be back in my home state of Wisconsin! Now I live within 2 hours of my family and my hometown of Green Bay. After being in the city of St. Louis for the past 12 years, I look forward to spending more time outdoors with my two dogs, boating with family, and checking out the breweries in the state.

The Wise Men Arrive

One of our traditions when we return to school after Christmas break is having the Wise Men travel around the school and arrive at the Nativity scene at the end of the day on January 6.

From the Parish Nurse

Whoever said the Creator doesn't have a sense of humor? And boy could we use a bit of humor to refresh our spiritual health. A story used in the past, but worth repeating to give hope.

Dwight Nelson told this true story about his Pastor. He had a kitten that climbed up a tree in his backyard and was afraid to come down. The Pastor coaxed, offered warm milk, etc.. The kitten would not come down. The tree was not sturdy enough to climb, so the Pastor decided that if he tied a rope to his car and drove forward so the tree would bend down, he could then reach up and get the kitten. He did all this, checking his progress in the car frequently, then figured if he went just a little bit further, the tree would be sufficiently for him to reach the kitten. But, as he moved a little further forward, the rope broke. The tree went "boing!" and the kitten instantly sailed through the air and out of sight. The Pastor felt terrible. He walked all over the neighborhood asking people if they'd seen a little kitten. No... nobody had seen a stray kitten. So, he prayed, "Lord, I just commit this kitten to your keeping", and went about his business. A few days later he was at the grocery store and met one of his parishioners. He happened to look into her shopping cart and was amazed to see cat food. Now this woman was a cat hater, and everyone knew it, so he asked her, "Why are you buying cat food when you hate cats so much?" She replied, "You won't believe this" and told him how her little girl had been begging for a cat, but she was refusing. Then a few days before, the child had begged again so the mom finally told her, "Well, if God gives you a cat, I'll let you keep it!" She told the pastor, "I watched my child go out in the yard, get on her knees and ask God for a cat. And really, Pastor, you won't believe this, but I saw it with my own eyes. A kitten suddenly came flying out of the blue sky with its paws outspread, and landed right in front of her."

Never underestimate the power of God. Things happen for a reason. "Dare to dream, for in the daring there is defiance to live beyond your circumstances." (Su Williams)

God Bless ~ Ann Jelinek RN, PN

Reflection

The Baptism of the Lord

We need history. We need it in order to understand ourselves, personally and collectively. The pieces of our histories may not have always been the most positive, honest, exemplary, dignified, proud, and best moments of our lives, but they are ours. We have to acknowledge, remember, accept, and often heal them. We cannot forget them or pretend that they never existed. As horrible as the atrocities of events like Auschwitz, brutal injustices committed throughout the human journey, or personal painful experiences in our own stories, we need to remember. These times when humanity in general or people in particular have lost their way are times that need to be reconciled and redeemed.

If we lose the memories, we will make the same mistakes again. The human soul needs a strong sense of affirmation, direction and clear purpose. Without these essentials, we will easily run amuck and repeat the sins of our past. God's voice throughout history has spoken precisely about this! We are reminded through the voices and example of many prophets and witnesses not to make the same mistakes again, come back to center, discover the purpose given to us by God, maintain a sense of proper direction, seek healing for wounds, and be reconciled to our Creator.

Baptism is so incredibly important for the salvation of humankind, not only eternally, but here and now. Our existence depends upon it. It gives us the affirmation we need from God by gifting us with the same intimate relationship Jesus had with the Father. We are blessed with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Baptism calls us to remember, accept, and deal with the sins and inequities of our past regardless of how hurtful and serious. We consciously choose to turn away from them and put on the new life of Christ. To do this well, we must look hard and long at our sins and failings, listen to what they are saying and learn from them. If we ignore the past, collectively or personally, or pretend that it never happened, we will never grow. We will surely die.

People need to hear the message, lived and spoken, delivered by the baptized members of the Body of Christ. It is an essential message of hope that is layered with visions of justice, peace, reconciliation, redemption, blessing, and healing. It is a message that helps us remember what has gone before, the graces and the sins, and bring ourselves by God's help where we need to be. We are called to do much more than sit home behind our closed doors. We have a message to deliver. Are we ready to do so?

The Spirituality of the Evangelist: Virtual Retreat with St. Paul Street Evangelization's Adam Janke. All are welcome for a Catholic Biblical School of Michigan (CBSM) sponsored virtual retreat on Saturday, January 23 from 9:00AM-3:00PM, held on Zoom. The retreat will include talks by Adam Janke, times of quiet away from the computer for reflections, opportunities for group discussion, and guided prayer. Cost is $10/household. Please register by January 18 at cbasmich.org/retreat.
