Pompano Beach is 24.71 sq. mile city in Broward County, Florida, along the coast of the Atlantic Ocean, just to the north of Fort Lauderdale. The nearby Hillsboro Inlet forms part of the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway. As of the 2010 census the city's population was 99,845. The Green Market Pompano Beach draws crowds from the tri-county area—Broward, Palm Beach, and Miami-Dade counties.

The Green Market Pompano Beach brings approximately 200 people each date, and is anticipated to continually increase due to additional marketing and customer satisfaction.

Along with a vast assortment of produce and organic products, the Green Market Pompano Beach includes a variety of baked goods, coffee and tea, pet supplies, sauces, seafood, and treats to enjoy while walking the market. The market also hosts “specialty” days which include arts and crafts, health and wellness, entertainment and more.

Special attention to our vendors is a continuing priority. Vendor parking is conveniently located south of the Cultural Center and behind Pompano Beach City Hall. Vendor set up begins at 7:00 am on Market days and staff will be there to assist and direct you to your assigned booth space.

We thank you for your continued support, interest, and participation in the Green Market Pompano Beach. Please tell your friends! Spread the word so we may grow, prosper, and enjoy the Green Market together.
