DESTINY CALL TO ACTION: REVIVE YOUR FAITH

During this joyous Easter season, there are some of us who are experiencing troubling times, yes, even us in the household of faith. We who are of the household of faith having a solid foundation, can admit that often times we become depleted, wounded, worn and scared. There are times when we were walking by sight rather than walking by faith. We have to revive our faith with compassion for our missteps as well as others. When we're depleted, we may become insensitive and detached to the hungry, the unemployed and to the unhoused.

We tend to only offer verbal reassurance, "God will see you through", but we must revive our faith with actions like giving food to the hungry, clothing the naked, and offering an empathic listening ear to the angry.

What would Jesus, the man, do? Would He get involved with a group that feeds the hungry? Would He donate His extra clothes, sneakers, and shoes to those in need? Finally, would Jesus the man volunteer His time, talent and donations to an organization that works with the lost and those who feel disconnected? He absolutely would do all these things and more.

Remember, Christ told us "greater works shall you do in My name". Revive your faith. Go into the byways and highways and demonstrate that Jesus' love and kindness still lives.

WALKING IN DESTINY SCRIPTURES

2 Corinthians 4:8-9

We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.

Matthew 25:35

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in.

John 14:12

Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

ALL AROUND RESOURCES & ASSISTANCE

▶ Prevention Hotline | dial 211

211 is a source for local social service info, providing all Pennsylvania residents access to customized health, housing and human services in one place 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Individuals can call 211, or send a text to 898-211, or enter a live chat at pa211.org or visit <https://www.pa211.org/> and get connected to trained personnel who will help with your request.

While the hotline provides critical support, individuals facing immediate danger should always contact 911.

HOUSEHOLD RESOURCES

▶ Smoke Alarms

Philadelphia residents call 3-1-1 to receive a free smoke alarm installation. You can also submit a request to Philly 311 online.

▶ Philadelphia Water Department Financial Assistance Programs

If you're having problems paying your water bill or maintaining your service, Philadelphia Water Department has programs that may help you. For a view of the options available visit: <https://water.phila.gov/financial-assistance/>

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES & OPPORTUNITIES

▶ Philadelphia School District Re-Engagement Center

The School District of Philadelphia's Re-Engagement Center (REC) is a "one-stop" shop that provides counseling, direct placement services, and information leading to re-enrollment in a high school diploma or GED program, connecting students with several program types, and a variety of options for completing their graduation requirements. For more information call 215-400-6700 or go to: <https://www.philasd.org/opportunitynetwork/reengagement/>

▶ DadLab | Meetings held online with Zoom

Sponsored by Einstein Medical Center of Philadelphia

This is a group designed for new fathers to learn about being a dad. Transitioning to fatherhood can be overwhelming. Sharing your experiences and learning from others can help you build confidence and bond with your baby. You won't be lectured on the "right" way to father. You'll have an opportunity to share your fathering experiences, concerns and questions and connect with other dads. New moms and partners are also included because everyone benefits when co-parents communicate and coordinate their care. For meeting times, call or text DadLab Director Jay Cherney at 215-690-1029 or email him at cherney.jay@gmail.com. Or contact Co-facilitator Clarence B. Iszard at 484-471-7005 or iszardc@einstein.edu.
