GREATER IS COMING

DESTINY – WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TROUBLE, BUT HE HAS OVERCOME THE WORLD

Many of our lives are filled with work, staying healthy, taking care of our children, keeping them safe, as well as being there for our partners and parents and trying to make time to ensure we stay sane. COVID-19 seems like it isn't going away anytime soon. In addition, we continue to be faced with people's self-importance, political rivalry, racism, and gun violence. It's a lot to deal with on a daily basis which can leave us feeling isolated and lonely. We have good news to share with you. The peace of God is available. Even in the midst of trouble, we can have peace. While standing in the eye of our storm, we can have soundness of heart and mind because we do not have to weather our storms alone.

Allow God to walk with you through every trial, every tribulation, every heartache, and every sorrow. God's hope stands at our door and knocks, ready to supply a way of escape where we can dwell in God's safety and protection. "Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good."

WALKING IN DESTINY SCRIPTURES

"I declare the end from the beginning, and from long ago what is not yet done, saying: my plan will take place, and I will do all my will."

Isaiah 46:10 CSB

But understand this: In the last days terrible times will come.

2 Timothy 3:1 BSB

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7 BSB

Behold, I'm standing at the door, knocking. If your heart is open to hear my voice and you open the door within, I will come in to you and feast with you, and you will feast with me. Revelation 3:20 – PV

It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed." Deuteronomy 31:8 ESV

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 1 Corinthians 10:13 ESV

DESTINY SPOTLIGHT

Ms. Rosalyn V. Jackson

This month's Destiny Spotlight is on Your Destiny is Here, Inc.'s Advisory Board Member, Ms. Rosalyn V. Jackson. Ms. Jackson is the Single Parent Advocate for YDH's Helping Women and Children in Crisis Advocacy Project. The following is our interview with Ms. Rosalyn V. Jackson.

My destiny is already laid out; already written in The Book because it is part of God's plan. While I may not have known what it was or how it would look, rest assured God knew. Everything I have gone through was part of my destiny and through it all, God was for me and with me, and He gets the glory.

The world would be a much better place if people would show love, understanding, and acceptance. I've encountered and overcome many obstacles in my life and had many paths that moved me towards my destiny. I consider obstacles part of my destiny. I've been in abusive relationships, I've lost jobs, and I was homeless for four years. I have been a full time daycare teacher while working a second job in the hospitality industry. (I love Sunday School and I miss teaching.) I also worked in scientific research as an Animal Care Technician. When I was living in the homeless shelter, we had to attend a faith based program on Sundays. I only attended because it was a requirement. I was not interested because I had lost faith. It felt like I had lost my way. However, as I participated in Bible Study and parenting groups, I learned a lot about myself and the many life skills I needed. It made me a better person. I currently work in the hospitality industry as a professional bartender. While this is not my long term plan it is my current path. The hospitality industry has me meeting a lot of people. It allows me to minister to some of my customers as I network, and make connections. I get to meet people where they are and enjoy bringing God to the forefront and into the conversation. My life's situations have taught me that God put me in storms so He could get closer to me by drawing me closer to Him.

My spiritual gifting is ministering to children and single mothers. In fact, in January 2022, I'm planning to get my undergraduate degree in Social Work. I'm understanding and forgiving; I'm not perfect and I make mistakes. I'm not just a serious church girl. I can be stern, but I can also be silly and fun. I am creative, and enjoy making gift baskets that make people happy. I'm gratified by helping mothers and especially fathers nurture and uplift their children. Children need their fathers to do more than just provide for them financially. Children need their fathers' presence in their lives. Men spending family time with their children and showing respect for their mothers is valuable. I tell fathers, "It doesn't cost anything to spend time with your children, and that's what they need most." It helps build character especially in our young men.

I am a proud single parent of twin boys. I always plan out their time and days as well as my own because idle time is the devil's playground. For us to be successful, it takes self-discipline, self-sacrifice, and keeping to a routine schedule. In fact, my flexible working schedule creates opportunities for me to parent my boys, allowing me time to nurture and care for them in a way I couldn't when I worked a pre-set, full time schedule.

For anyone who has lost their way or is discouraged, I would say life is like Mother Nature, awesome yet ever changing. You can count on life to be as predictable as the changing seasons and you can also count on life to be unpredictable as storms and tornadoes. However, all of God's creation is beautiful and sometimes we have to experience the wilderness before experiencing the mountain top rewards. I would advise go back to talking to God to get clarity. Assessing our behavior is a key step to moving from where we are to where we need to be. Ask yourself, "What part did I play that resulted in my current situation?" You don't want to be in bondage or a victim of poor decision-making. All actions have consequences. We need God's insight to show us how we contributed to what happened to us and how we can prevent it from happening again. Because in the end, all the glory belongs to Him.

CALL TO ACTION

LISTENING FOR THE VOICE OF GOD

God calls to us daily. This month, take time daily to listen for His still small voice. Listen to what He's telling you. God is trying to get our attention. He wants to be a part of our lives. He wants us to be a part of His plan. Is God telling you to pray, to read, to wait, or to act? Try this and see your life change for the better.

Be intentional to see His hand of mercy, grace, and favor work in your life. Recognize when His love is being presented to you. And at the end of each day, commune with Him, talk with Him and thank Him.

TRIVIA QUESTION

What is a blue moon?

How do pickles feel about a day out?

They relish it!

ACCOUNTABILITY FOCUS

Staying abreast and aware of things that impact our lives.

1. WOMEN

- October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. It provides an opportunity to remember victims of domestic violence, raise awareness of what domestic violence is, how to recognize it, and what we can all do to collectively prevent it. The Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence remains committed to ending intimate partner violence and all forms of violence against women. Their website provides a lot of information about prevention, programs, initiatives, finding help and more. Visit at www.pcadv.org.

- Fairness in Women's Sports Act law in Florida.

The Fairness in Women's Sports Act was signed into law by Gov. Ron DeSantis on June 1st, and became effective on July 1st. "It (the law) says that we're going to go based off biology not based off ideology in women's sports." "In Florida, girls are gonna play girls' sports and boys are gonna play boys' sports", Gov. DeSantis said before signing the bill in Jacksonville.

The Fairness in Women's Sports Act - HB 972 - would protect women and girls by ensuring that they are not forced to compete against biological males playing on women's sports teams. Take action and ask your state representative to support HB 972 here.

2. WHAT WILL IT TAKE TO END VIOLENCE in the City of Brotherly Love?

As of September 19, 2021, in the city of Philadelphia, there have been 367 homicides so far this year (and 9,919 other violent crimes committed – rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults). Statistics from Philadelphia Police Department Crime Maps & Stats.

- The Office of Victim Advocate (OVA) is hosting a virtual Gun Violence Reduction Roundtable on October 13th. If you would like to attend this virtual roundtable discussion. Call 215-332-3888 for more information and registration info.
- Statewide, approximately more than 80,000 guns were sold in September 2021; approximately 55,000 of those were handguns, and approximately 25,000 were long guns (some military-style rifles).
- Don't forget – if you have a gun in your home along with children, you can request a free gun lock at any time from the "Safe Bet" program. To find out the location of the next community gun lock giveaway, please check templesafetynet.org for upcoming events. You can also REQUEST A GUN LOCK HERE!
- Find a list of resources for people affected by gun violence here.

3. VOTING POWER

▶ Voter Legislation

The John Lewis Voting Rights Amendment Act of 2021, is proposed legislation that would restore and strengthen parts of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. It helps safeguard voting rights around the country. The U.S House of Representatives finally passed the bill on August 24th. It has moved on to the Senate for ratification, where it is stalled.

- ▶ Have you recently: Moved? Changed your name? Want to check your voter registration status? The next election in Pennsylvania is November 2, 2021. Now is the time to make sure you are registered to vote, and your voter registration information is correct and up to date. Visit votesPA.com/Register to: register to vote, change your name, or change your address. You must make any updates to your voter registration by October 18 for them to take effect by the November 2021 election.

- ▶ The deadline to sign-up to vote by mail ballot during the upcoming election is October 25th. Sign up today at <http://votespa.com/mailballot>. You must be a registered voter to submit an application. You may check whether you are registered to vote in Pennsylvania using Find Voter Registration Status.

4. REDISTRICTING affects how Pennsylvania's diverse communities are represented.

Under state law, the Pennsylvania legislature is tasked with passing a bill defining congressional district boundaries, which is then considered by the Governor. The legislature will debate these maps this fall so that they can be in place for next year's primary election.

To increase community engagement with this critical process, Governor Tom Wolf has established a Pennsylvania Redistricting Public Comment Portal to allow citizens to provide input on the congressional redistricting process. Give Your Feedback on Pennsylvania's Redistricting.

▪ COVID-19 TESTING

Testing is being required of many people, especially those who have not gotten the vaccine but want to attend concerts, sporting events, and even go to work. Also for people who have gotten the vaccine, if you are travelling, you may be expected to quarantine and/or be tested. Many companies are now charging for tests. Make sure you call before you go, so you're not surprised, as some tests can be $75 or over. No-cost testing is available at certain local health centers and select pharmacies. Call your local CVS, RiteAid, and Walgreens for more information. Also, the Black Doctors Consortium continues to do free testing and vaccinations. Visit their website for a weekly schedule of locations and dates. They can also be contacted by phone, 484-270-6200 or email: info@blackdoctorsconsortium.com; www.blackdoctorsconsortium.com.

HEALTHCARE NEWS

Black Doctors COVID-19 Consortium to open clinic offering primary care to combat health inequity

The Black Doctor's Consortium is opening a clinic, officially called the Dr. Ala Stanford Center for Health Equity. It is set to open in mid-October and will offer blood draws for lab tests, X-rays, behavioral health care, and wellness checkups for adults and children, plus standard immunizations and flu shots. There will be eight exam rooms and three behavioral health spaces. It will employ roughly five physicians, two physician assistants, and a large support staff of nurses. The center, located at Deliverance Evangelistic Church in North Philadelphia will accept all forms of insurance, and offer a sliding scale for people who are uninsured. "The care that folks get here is going to be the same, whether you have health insurance or not," said Stanford.

RENTAL ASSISTANCE, UTILITY HELP

Philadelphia residents who need help paying their rent and utilities can seek help through the Emergency Rental Assistance Program. The Emergency Rental Assistance Program is open to landlords and tenants. In addition, if homeowners are struggling with mortgage delinquencies and/or property tax delinquencies related to covid-19, help is available. Also, this program helps with several utilities, including assistance with PECO utility bills. You can find additional resources for help online here. If you're in Philly, contact the Save Your Home Philly hotline at 215-334-4663. Apply for the rental assistance program at phlrentassist.org.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

HOPEWORKS exists to open doors for positive change for young men and women ages 17 – 26. HopeWorks is an organization that combines education, technology, and entrepreneurship to build professional web design and development skills. They help young people get back in school, earn permanent jobs, and achieve their highest potential. Located in Camden, NJ, you can contact them on line - <https://hopeworks.org>
