DESTINY – ONWARD TO YEAR 4 WITH Peace in our hearts, minds, and souls

Since the inception of the YDH newsletter, it has been our goal to provide information with resources to help, as well as present ways to enjoy life. We are so grateful for the privilege and honor to know God and to show and share His love throughout our communities.

However, it is distressing that there are wars currently going on in our world. Two in other lands, the Ukrainian and Israeli wars, creating chaos, families being separated and losing their homes, wondering where they will get their next meal. Innocent adults, children and babies being killed. People are left feeling hopeless. The second war is happening right here in Philly: car jackings, road rage, racial injustices, black on black crime, domestic violence, gun violence, random looting. The blood of our brothers and sisters is crying out in the streets. We need peace. In order to have peace on our streets, we must first have peace within ourselves and then have peace with others.

Peace comes when we treat people the way we want to be treated. We must walk in love and work in unity with each other. Peace will allow our neighbors and our communities to live amicably, and we can have rest for our hearts, bodies, minds, and souls.

Peace begins with God. Having faith in God, believing in Him, following His ways, and trusting in Him can provide peace in ways you will never realize unless you draw close to Him. Those of us who have faith in Him, who believe in Him, those of us who trust Him know that He has truly made a difference in our lives. Don't take our word for it, or anyone else's word or opinion. Taste and see for yourself. For He loves you more than you will ever know, but you will never know unless you inquire of Him.

Moving forward into year 4, YDH looks forward to continuing to support the Philadelphia community as we continue to pray for peace on our streets.

The guiding scripture of Your Destiny is Here Inc. is Jeremiah 29:11. Here it is in different translations. May one of them speak to your heart today.

*"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD,
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." NIV*

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you an expected end. KJ21

I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to bring you prosperity and not disaster, plans to bring about the future you hope for. GNT

I know what I'm doing. I have it all planned out – plans to take care of you, not abandon you, plans to give you the future you hope for. MSG

WALKING IN DESTINY SCRIPTURE

Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you shall have peace. Jeremiah 29:7

Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you His peace at all times and in every situation. The Lord be with you all. 2 Thessalonians 3:16

In peace I will lie down and sleep, for You alone, O Lord, will keep me safe. Psalm 4:8

I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. John 16:33

CALL TO ACTION – Maintain Your Peace

There are many things that come against our relationships, that attack our peace with each other. Jealousy, bitterness, offense, unforgiveness and lies are just a few. Whether the breach is coming from within (our flesh) or without (satan's attack using those around us), there are things we can do to combat the attacks. Here's a starter list.

1. If you are really, really angry, walk away. Take time to calm down so you can hear and be heard without yelling. Ephesians. 4:26-27 reminds us, "Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil."
2. Be willing to listen to each other, really listen. Try to put yourself in the other persons shoes.
3. Take responsibility for the part you play in the conflict. Be truthful with yourself and the other person. No one wants to be lied to.
4. Work on forgiving one another.

Do you have tips of your own you'd like to share? Feel free to share them with us.

DISCOVERY – PEACE

*It does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble or hard work.
It means to be in the midst of those things and still be calm in your heart.*

TRIVIA QUESTION

How many people participated in Hands Across America?

(Answer at the end of the newsletter)

Children's Corner

First things first

One of the most important things you need to know, the one thing that will never stop being beneficial to you, is that learning never stops. No matter your age, no matter if you are in school or not, everyday there is something for you to understand, to absorb, to perceive. It may come from talking to others, watching the news, doing something you haven't done before, or just looking out the window and really seeing what you are looking at. Whether you enjoy it or not, learning is a part of living.

Being able to read is essential to the learning process. If you need help reading, let us know and we will find help for you (our contact information is at the end of the newsletter). Words are very important. Words have power. Some are destructive. Others are creative. Which do you use on a daily basis?

Here's a word for you to use this month: Responsibility. Think about what it means to you, and we'll discover more about it next month.

Now, gather the kids and have some fun!

Veterans are men and women who have served but are not currently serving, on active duty in the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or the Coast Guard, or who served in the U.S. Merchant Marine during World War II.

Thank you to all the men and women who have fought and offered up life and limb. Who have sacrificed more than we can ever know for they have seen things they cannot unsee. We don't know them all, but we owe them all.

We salute all of you this Veteran's Day.

FALL VACCINATION INFORMATION

Public health officials are spreading the word about newly approved vaccines and immunizations that can help protect against seasonal viral illnesses. Since the start of the Covid-19 pandemic, many hospitals are now feeling the burden of the so-called "tripledemic" - Covid, flu and RSV. RSV is a viral infection that leads to mild symptoms for most people, but it can be deadly for children and senior citizens. In addition to protections against RSV, there is an updated Covid booster expected to protect against newer variants that are circulating this season. Check in with your doctor regarding timing out your vaccine protections.

The Promise is investing in strategies to remove barriers to employment. Through the Jobs and Opportunity Challenge, we're partnering with trusted community organizations to expand outreach, run record clearing clinics, and leverage key learnings.

Record Clearing is important to the workforce. Incarceration is shown to limit opportunity and depress hourly wages by approximately 11% and annual earnings by 40%.

For more than 300,000 Philadelphians with a conviction, their record is preventing their ability to provide for themselves and their families. Studies have shown that within one year of a person getting their record sealed, their wages go up by over 22% primarily from new employment opportunities. Source: Economy League of Greater Philadelphia, 2011. A conviction should not be a life sentence to poverty.

TRIVIA QUESTION ANSWER

How many people participated in Hands across America?

5 – 6.5 million people

Hands Across America was a public fundraising event on Sunday, May 25, 1986, when 5 to 6.5 million people held hands for 15 minutes in an attempt to form a continuous human chain across the contiguous United States. The attempt to have a complete line of people across the country failed, although the number of participants would have been sufficient to succeed if they had been spread out over the full length of the planned course. The various gaps in the line between participants were filled using ribbons, ropes, or banners.

Many participants donated $10 each to reserve their place in line. The proceeds were donated to local charities to fight hunger and homelessness and help those in poverty. The event raised about $15 million for charities after operating costs.
