DISTRICT 16

FISCALLY RESPONSIBLE. ACCOUNTABLE LEADERSHIP.

MEET BEVERLY

Beverly Brooks Thompson is a candidate for Louisiana Senate District 16. Beverly Brooks Thompson is a small business owner with a career devoted to community service and leadership. As the director of the Forever LSU fundraising campaign, Beverly helped raise over $798M to ensure LSU's standing as the state flagship university and national Tier One status. Beverly served as President of the Foundation for Woman's at Woman's Hospital, leading the work to provide much needed healthcare services to those in need. Beverly earned four degrees from LSU, completing three programs as a single mother. Her campaign has already acquired over 300 individual donors, proving she has the momentum to win the election.

WHY I'M RUNNING

"We must return to civil discussion regarding the future of our state in the legislature. This means bringing accountability back to the forefront of the legislature. We need to stop balancing the budget on the backs of students and make sure a great education is attainable and available for every child. That's why I'm running for State Senate."

“According to the results of our recent survey, Beverly Brooks Thompson is in position to win the Senate District 16 seat in the fall.”

BEVERLY'S PATH TO VICTORY

Senate District 16 is one of the most highly educated districts in Louisiana, situated adjacent to LSU. The district supported Governor John Bel Edwards in 2015 and provided Mayor Sharon Weston Broome with the support she needed to win in 2016. The district has historically been a “swing” district with regards to political parties, and voters tend to vote for the person over the party in most elections.

SENATE DISTRICT 16

Dan Claitor has served District 16 and is term limited, thus creating an open seat.
