INTRO

The interesting thing about football is perspective. Was it a bad offense or good defense? Is a loss really a lesson? Each person's point of view is subjective. This week's games provided plenty of speculation as to how to view things. Moreover, plenty of things that all teams can work on.

FALCONS vs 49ERS

Coming off an impressive victory in the first game, the 49ers were back to play the ever so gritty Falcons. Although the weather was a non-factor, this game was a defensive battle. Colin Rodriguez struggled a bit but made the necessary plays when it mattered the most. The 49ers got on the board when Colin found reigning MVP Jayden Pena for a touchdown score. The duo also got creative, as Jayden Pena threw a touchdown pass to Colin. Defense took over from there. Jomar Perez got to the quarterback 3 times and Joshua Ortiz added the 6 stops. 49ers over the Falcons by a score of 12-2.

PACKERS vs GIANTS

Up next, the Packers took on the Giants. Dylan Castellanos had a good game. He went 12 for 27 and threw 3 touchdowns. Jayden Guzman had a breakout game as well. He was on the receiving end of all three touchdowns. He also added a rushing touchdown and an extra point. Dennis Benegas had 6 flags, 2 interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. All Packers 33-6.

BUCS vs BEARS

The Bucs and Bears finalized our Saturday games. One of the very first players to come out of the YALD Youth Clinic, Justin Fernandez has been playing outstanding. Perhaps the addition of his younger brother Jariel to the Bears has Justin motivated to show his younger sibling the correct way to play. Justin was on the receiving end of 2 touchdowns throws from Quarterback JanLuis Castro. On defense, Justin had 2 interceptions. JanLuis Castro also added 9 flags. The Bears won by a score of 18 to 9.
