ABOUT US

The Indo-Asian Journal of Social Science and Management Research is a distinguished bi-annual, peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to fostering academic excellence and interdisciplinary collaboration. Established to address the growing need for a comprehensive platform, the journal emphasizes the convergence of social sciences and management studies, offering insights into the complexities of contemporary global challenges.

With a commitment to high-quality research, the journal serves as a beacon for scholars, researchers, and practitioners eager to explore critical issues, innovative strategies, and sustainable solutions. The journal not only supports ongoing professional development and research but also encourages dialogue on policy implications, practical applications, and transformative trends.

We aim to provide a rich repository of knowledge that promotes intellectual exchange across disciplines such as cultural studies, economics, political science, business management, sociology, international relations, and more. Rooted in an ethos of inclusivity and academic rigor, the Indo-Asian Journal of Social Science and Management Research aspires to make a lasting impact on the academic and professional community globally.

Through our publication, we strive to create a space where diverse perspectives are respected, innovation is celebrated, and scholarly contributions drive progress in both theory and practice. Join us in shaping the future of social science and management research.

AIM

The Indo-Asian Journal of Social Science and Management Research aims to serve as a dynamic platform for advancing interdisciplinary research and scholarly discourse at the intersection of social sciences and management. The journal is dedicated to fostering innovation, critical thinking, and evidence-based insights that address significant business, social, and policy challenges globally. By supporting ongoing professional training and research, the journal aspires to contribute meaningfully to academic and practical developments in these fields.

SCOPE

The journal welcomes original research articles, case studies, reviews, and theoretical papers that explore diverse topics within the fields of social sciences and management. It prioritizes works that examine significant business issues, develop innovative strategies, evaluate contrasting possibilities, and explore the effects of policies and practices on various social groups and economic players. Submissions may address, but are not limited to:

- 1) Cultural studies
- 2) Economic development
- 3) Political science
- 4) Business management
- 5) International relations
- 6) Sociology

- 7) Anthropology
- 8) Environmental studies
- 9) Legal studies

This bi-annual, peer-reviewed international journal seeks to bridge the gap between theory and practice, encouraging collaborative discussions among scholars, researchers, and practitioners worldwide.
