Financial Update: For the first six months of 2022, Springdale offerings totaled $59,555 and expenses totaled $81,534. Additional financial details will be shared / discussed at the Congregational Meeting on Aug. 17.

You are invited to hear author Kathleen Weaver Kurtz introduce her memoir, The Blistering Morning Mist, at Springdale this Wed., July 27, at 7 p.m.! The Springdale congregation & surrounding communities played a role in her developing life, including the year she attended Augusta Mennonite School. Check the foyer table for additional info.

If you have not yet blessed someone with your 9:11 Project money, please do so & share a quick update with Pastor Kevin. Also, if you've given your money but haven't let Kevin know, please do that as well.

Mark your calendars for apple butter boiling on Sat., Sept. 17, at Friendship Park; and pick up a VA Mennonite Relief Sale flyer from the foyer table (this year's sale will be held Sept. 30 - Oct. 1).

Check the Springdale bulletin board for information on the following: 1) serving as a hospice volunteer through Augusta Health; 2) the Walk to End Alzheimer's on Sept. 24; 3) the CROP Hunger Walk on Sept. 25; and 4) a Women's Weekend Retreat in November (early bird registration ends on Aug. 12).
