

With their well-crafted piece of classical writing, The Bootleggers Music Group invites us to face a scary yet irrefutably fascinating part of life “Death”

Part 5 - Death - a scary yet irrefutably fascinating concept that bears more questions than it can ever possibly answer and there is no musical style that can effectively draw out the intricacies of the concept better than a well-crafted piece of classical writing. Being such a complex subject matter, it's integral that the many facets of the undeniably daunting time for many are thoroughly explored within the music, namely through the thematic exploration surrounding such aspects and feelings such as fear, acceptance, reflection, resolution, and even joy with regards to ones feeling of a fulfilled life lived alongside many worthwhile achievements -We believe this piece effectively explores these concepts brilliantly and serves as quite possibly the most poignant and heartfelt chapter in "My Lifes Works".

ABOUT

The Bootleggers Music Group is a collection of individuals from across 7 continents who continue to magnetize listeners with their music. The seeds of the group were planted in 2020, when artist Paul Jones found himself and his business deemed “non-essential.” However, rather than wallow in darkness forever, he was inspired by a visit from his lifelong friend Wayne Maxwell, who suggested he turn to music and God for healing. It was a meaningful turning point in Paul’s life, as he and Wayne went on to write nearly 100 songs in the ensuing weeks. Realizing their potential, the duo decided to get the right people together to produce the very best music possible.

Producing something for everyone, no matter what their faith or belief, The Bootleggers Music Group’s lineup soon expanded to include not just fellow musicians, but producers, writers, and composers from all over the world. Currently, the group can be found performing at clubs, parties, and even parking lots across the region. With an unwavering love for both God and Music, they continue to inspire listeners with every song they perform.
