Stepping Up to Care for Orphans and Widows
by Christy Bell

“Loss. We’ve all been affected by it. For some, loss can turn everything in their lives upside down. In times of mourning, people can experience not only the painful grief of loss but also the overwhelm of financial and household responsibilities.

For children, the loss of parents is even more devastating. When the need is great, however, God’s Word commands Christians to step up to the task of great care. The deepest needs often give us the opportunity to show the greatest compassion.

Psalm 34:18 reminds us, ‘The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.’ He cares for women and children who find themselves in the midst of troubling times. God will multiply our time, energy, and resources to meet the needs of those who are most vulnerable.”

Just a friendly reminder to TURN YOUR CLOCKS BACK ONE HOUR
before bedtime Saturday, November 1.
Also, now is a great time to

in your smoke detector!
