FIRST BAPTIST HERALD

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, HAMPTON, S.C. 29924
Volume 67 June 2025 No. 6

HAPPY Father's DAY

As a father has compassion
on his children,
so the Lord has compassion
on those who fear him.

Psalm 103:13

2026 Deacon Nominations

We will begin the Deacon Nomination process in July. You are asked to prayerfully consider qualified members as Deacons. When considering someone, ask yourself this important question, “Who comes to mind when I think of servant leaders within our body?” Look for more details in next month’s Herald.

Refugee Hope Upstate

Our vision is to create a community where refugees are welcomed, treated with dignity and respect, and empowered to become self-sufficient and independent.

Our mission is to demonstrate the love of Christ by providing meaningful, practical support to refugees in Pickens and Oconee counties through volunteers and partnerships with churches, businesses, civic organizations, and individuals.

You may send donations to:
Refugee Hope Upstate Inc.
First Baptist Church of Clemson
Room 221
397 College Avenue
Clemson, SC 29631

We extend a warm welcome to Joey and Tonya Ginn who joined April 27, 2025 by profession of faith and transfer of letter. Joey was baptized on May 4, 2025.

We also extend a warm welcome to Noah Alexander and Megan Long who joined by transfer of letter on Sunday, May 25, 2025.

Congratulations to Emerson and Mary Wiles on the birth of their first great grandbaby, Monroe Slone Monks. Keller and Ashley Monks are the proud parents and Nola Wiles is the proud grandmother. Monroe was born April 28, 2025 and she weighed 7 pounds, 15 ounces.

Congratulations also to Parkes and Emily Pitman on the birth of their daughter, Elsie Marisa. Elsie was born May 5, 2025, weighing 8 pounds, 7 ounces, and was 21 inches.

The WMU Missions Celebration and Annual Meeting will be held at the Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas, Texas, on June8-9, 2025. Please be in prayer for this meeting.
