WEAVING NEWS

Another fabulous rug off the loom courtesy of Barb Thomas. She considers Pendleton selvedges a one and done!

WHAT ARE YOU WORKING ON?

Darlene Laiche has been busy making towels to sell at a Holiday craft fair. Beautiful job, Darlene! Best of luck!

SPINNING NEWS

Gina Caudillo has another Spinning Class coming up during Super Saturday on November 8th. Join her to learn to spin on a wheel. Next Saturday on November 10 January 2026.

FELTING NEWS

Felting with Friends is currently on hold while Karen Wooton recovers from a health issue. We miss you, Karen, and hope you get well soon.

NEW SKILLS

Marcy Kimbraugh has been creating ceramic buttons. Ruth tied two together with an elastic band to secure her indigo dyed scarf.

TAPESTRY NEWS

Karen Greeley brought in her latest tapestry. She did not have a cartoon but let her imagination take charge as she wove. The next meeting will be Thursday, November 6th at 11:00 AM.

FOR SALE:

We currently have a nice, 4-shaft, Murphy Loom needing a new home. We also have a almost new 4-shaft Dorothy table loom for sale.

LIBRARY

Our library is full of resources for exploring weavers, spinners and dyers. Take advantage and learn something new.

OCTOBER ANTIQUE TRACTOR SHOW

Thank you to all who volunteered to support the Fall Tractor Show!

Our Kid's Crafts expanded to include beaded calico corn care of Barbara Thomas who sourced the supplies and organized the activity. We also continued with pin loom bookmarks and Kumihimo. We couldn't have done Kid's Crafts without the support of Margie White and Marcy Kimbraugh who put in long hours both weekends. Also assisting were Becky Reed, Ange Dee and Jill Sparrow-Koch.

Weaving demonstrations are always a hit with visitors. Thanks to Sheri Walls, Karen Greeley, Ray Snedeker, Ruth Morita, Randee Griffin, Elizabeth Michel and Adria Vidaurri who also volunteered to weave.

Charla Keiser gave Cricket Loom demonstrations allowing visitors of all ages to try their hand at weaving. We had tapestry demonstrations courtesy of Chisom and Rachele, and Jill brought in her Navajo loom to share her experiences with many.

The Spinners' Cottage was active with Sue Barton and Erika Killingstad taking the lead. They were joined by Bobbin Lacers lead by Vicki Higgins and assisted by Ray, Collette and Anne.

Connie Knuth skillfully managed sales with the help of Lynda Nolan. We contributed over $1300 to the Museum from our Sales. Thank you to everyone who works so hard in producing items for our sales and helping prep the Barn and Cottage.

Thank you to everyone who came and worked. We value your contributions. It takes a village to do what we do and everyone is needed. We appreciate all volunteer time that you are able to provide.

TRACTOR SHOW FUN

INDIGO DYE PARTY

Thank you to Maura White for volunteering to lead an Indigo Dye class. Everyone had a great time and there were no new Smurfs at the end!

GUILD CHALLENGE

Submissions for the Guild Challenge keep coming. It is not too late to contribute to the project. See Connie Knuth if you need to collect color cards.
