Legion

·On November 25, 1950, the first Canadian troops set sail from Seattle, Washington, bound for service in the Korean War.

These members of the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (PPCLI) would soon join United Nations forces fighting in East Asia to defend South Korea following the North Korean invasion.

More than 26,000 Canadians served in the Korean War, with hundreds being wounded and 516 losing their lives. The PPCLI would go on to distinguish itself in battles like the bitter fighting at Kapyong, earning international recognition for its soldiers' bravery and resilience.

Though often called "the Forgotten War," the Korean War remains a vital chapter in Canada's military history. Today, we remember the courage of those who served and the sacrifices they made in the pursuit of peace and freedom.

-What bites but doesn't have teeth? Frost.

-What happens when you catch a cold? You get cabin fever.

-What does Frosty's mom put on her face at night? Cold cream.

-What's the difference between ice and icicle? Ice has noel.

-What kind of fish do penguins catch at night? Starfish.

-What is a snow leopard's favorite type of candy? Snowcaps.

-Who is Frosty's favorite aunt? Aunt Arctica.
