Following the Swissair Flight 111 tragedy, local fishers were first on the scene.

What started as a search and rescue operation for survivors, quickly turned into a recovery mission.

The Canadian Armed Forces and Canadian Coast Guard played key roles in the mission, codenamed Operation Persistence. The RCMP also joined them via their Operation Homage. It was one of the largest domestic military operations in our country's history.

Do you remember the Swissair tragedy?

Ever since I was a child I've always had a fear of someone under my bed at night. So I went to a shrink and told him, "I've got problems".
"Every time I go to bed I think there's somebody under it."
"I'm scared. I think I'm going crazy."

"Just put yourself in my hands for one year," said the shrink.
"Come talk to me three times a week and we should be able to get rid of those fears."

"How much do you charge?"
"One hundred fifty dollars per visit," replied the doctor.

"I'll sleep on it," I said.
Six months later the doctor met me on the street.

He asked, "Why didn't you come to see me about those fears you were having?"

"Well, $150 a visit, three times a week for a year, is $23,400.00. A bartender cured me for $10.00. I was so happy to have saved all that money that I went and bought a new pickup truck."

With a bit of an attitude he said, "Is that so?" "And how, may I ask, did a bartender cure you?"
"He told me to cut the legs off the bed. Ain't nobody there now."

It's always better to get a second opinion.
