The Royal Canadian Legion - National Headquarters -

The Royal Canadian Legion's 48th Dominion Convention (Virtual Edition) was a success, with 880 Delegates and 175 Observers attending! While this year's format was different, our goal remained the same: to make the Legion the best it can be to serve Canada's Veterans.

This year, Delegates representing close to 250,000 members met online to discuss the future of the Legion and elect the next Dominion President and Senior Elected Officers. Congratulations go out to our new Senior Elected Officers, who will carry out the business of the organization until the next National Convention.

Dominion President – Bruce Julian
First Vice President – Owen Parkhouse
Vice President – Berkley Lawrence
Vice President – Sharon McKeown
Vice President – Brian Weaver
Treasurer – Mark Barham
Chairman – Bill Chafe

To our immediate past Dominion President, Thomas D. Irvine, CD, thank you for your three years of dedication and service to Canada's Veterans, the Legion, and our members.

Our Self-Serving Politicians Should Take a Course YES?

Problem solved on a bus!

Two women on a bus in Brooklyn were fighting bitterly over the last available seat.

That day a supervisor happened to be riding as well, and tried unsuccessfully to intervene.

The bus driver by the name of Ralph (some of you will get this) yelled back and said,

“Let the ugly one take the seat!”

Both women stood for the rest of the ride.
